TEDDY ROOK BOOK · VOCABULARY LADDER

1,000 Words, Pictured

Volume 2 of 4 · Topics 26–50

Each card gives a word, how to say it (the capital letters are stressed), its meaning, a memory hook with a picture, an example and its Greek or Latin parts. To learn a word: say the hook out loud, picture the scene, then cover the card and try to recall the meaning. Come back to it tomorrow and again next week.

26. Noticing and Understanding
27. How Often
28. Helping Along
29. Who Rules
30. Unusual
31. Speaking and Saying: loqu and dict
32. Proud and Humble
33. Right and Wrong
34. Arguing a Case
35. Calm
36. Comparing and Contrasting
37. Beginnings
38. Getting in the Way
39. Guilt and Innocence
40. Big and Small
41. Turning, Throwing and Pulling: vert, ject and tract
42. Careful and Careless
43. Real and Fake
44. Tricky Twins
45. Fear and Worry
46. Learners and Experts
47. Peaks and Endings
48. Calming Things Down
49. Fighting and Making Peace
50. Everywhere

perceive per-SEEV verb

MEANING to notice or become aware of, through the senses or the mind

MEMORY HOOK PEER and reCEIVE. Sami peers into the night sky and receives a tiny flash of light: a shooting star! To perceive is to take in something with your senses.

Owls can perceive the tiny rustle of a mouse in the grass.

PARTS per thoroughly + ceive take, seize (from Latin capere)

SIMILAR notice, detect, sense, observe

OPPOSITE miss, overlook, ignore discern dih-SURN verb

MEANING to notice or tell apart, often with effort

MEMORY HOOK DIS-CERN: is it DIS one?. Two gems look exactly alike, but Ada's sharp eye can tell that this one is real and that one is glass. To discern is to tell things apart.

In the fog, Dad could barely discern the outline of the barn.

PARTS dis apart + cern separate, sift

SIMILAR distinguish, detect, make out, tell apart

OPPOSITE overlook, confuse fathom FATH-um verb

MEANING to understand something fully, after much thought

MEMORY HOOK FATHOM: get to the BOTTOM of it. Sailors once lowered a weighted rope to find the depth of the sea in fathoms. To fathom a mystery is to get all the way to the bottom of it.

Pip could not fathom why anyone would put pineapple on a pancake.

SIMILAR understand, comprehend, grasp, figure out

OPPOSITE misunderstand

glean GLEEN verb

MEANING to gather information bit by bit

MEMORY HOOK GLEAN = CLEAN UP every last bit. After the harvest, Nana Lou walks the field and picks up every last stalk the reapers missed. In the same way, a careful reader can glean facts bit by bit.

From the muddy paw prints, Lila gleaned that the dog had been in the garden.

SIMILAR gather, collect, pick up, piece together cognizant KOG-nih-zunt adjective

MEANING aware; knowing about something

MEMORY HOOK reCOGNIZE-ant: you recognize what is going on. Dev recognizes the cracked ice and the warning sign, so he stays on the shore. He is cognizant of the danger.

The hikers were cognizant of the park's bear rules because they had read every sign at the trailhead.

PARTS co thoroughly + gn know (from Latin gnoscere)

SIMILAR aware, conscious, informed, mindful OPPOSITE unaware, ignorant, oblivious vigilant VIJ-uh-lunt adjective

MEANING watchful and alert for danger or trouble

MEMORY HOOK a VIGIL: awake and watching all night. All night long the old owl keeps a vigil over the henhouse, eyes wide open, watching for foxes. She is vigilant.

The vigilant lifeguard never took her eyes off the water and spotted the struggling swimmer in seconds.

PARTS vigil awake, watchful + -ant being or doing (an adjective ending)

SIMILAR watchful, alert, attentive, on guard OPPOSITE careless, heedless, inattentive wary WAIR-ee adjective

MEANING cautious about possible danger or trickery

MEMORY HOOK be WARY = BEWARE. A sign says "Beware of the goose," so Kai tiptoes past the pond, watching the goose every step. He is wary.

The stray cat was wary of strangers but loved the girl who fed it.

SIMILAR cautious, guarded, watchful, suspicious OPPOSITE trusting, careless, unwary oblivious uh-BLIV-ee-us adjective

MEANING not aware of what is happening around you

MEMORY HOOK "OH, BLISS!" lost in his music. Felix bobs his head to the songs in his headphones, "Oh, bliss!", while the dog trots off with his sandwich. He is oblivious.

Lost in her book, Maya was oblivious to the rain soaking her shoes.

PARTS oblivi forgetting (from Latin oblivisci, "to forget") + -ous full of

SIMILAR unaware, unmindful, unconscious, inattentive OPPOSITE aware, cognizant, alert heedless HEED-lis adjective

MEANING paying no attention to warnings or dangers; careless

MEMORY HOOK HEED-LESS: pays no heed. Pip pays no heed to the "Wet Paint" sign and sits right down on the bench. He is heedless.

Heedless of the wet-paint sign, Pip plopped down on the bench and ruined his shorts.

PARTS heed attention, care + -less without

SIMILAR careless, unmindful, reckless, inattentive OPPOSITE careful, mindful, heedful subtle SUT-ul adjective

MEANING so slight or delicate that it is hard to notice

MEMORY HOOK the silent B in SUBTLE. The b in subtle makes no sound at all, so you hardly notice it is there. A difference that slight is subtle.

The soup had a subtle hint of lemon.

SIMILAR slight, faint, delicate, understated OPPOSITE obvious, blatant, glaring sporadic spuh-RAD-ik adjective

MEANING happening now and then, at irregular times

MEMORY HOOK SPORE-adic: popping up here and there. After the rain, mushrooms pop up from scattered spores: one here, two there, none over there. They appear at sporadic spots and times.

We heard only sporadic birdsong in the cold woods: a chirp here, then nothing for an hour.

PARTS spora scattered, sown (Greek) + -ic having to do with SIMILAR occasional, irregular, scattered, intermittent OPPOSITE regular, constant, steady intermittent in-ter-MIT-unt adjective

MEANING stopping and starting again, at irregular times

MEMORY HOOK INTER-MIT: stops IN BETWEEN. The rain stops, starts and stops again, so Lila opens and shuts her umbrella all afternoon. The rain is intermittent.

The forecast called for intermittent showers, stopping and starting all afternoon.

PARTS inter between + mitt let go, send + -ent being or doing (an adjective ending)

SIMILAR on-and-off, irregular, sporadic, fitful OPPOSITE continuous, constant, steady incessant in-SES-unt adjective

MEANING never stopping, often to the point of annoyance

MEMORY HOOK IN-CESS-ANT: the ANTS never CEASE. The ants march across the picnic blanket all day long, never stopping for a moment. Their marching is incessant.

The puppy's incessant barking went on all night without a single pause.

PARTS in- not + cess stop, cease + -ant being or doing (an adjective ending)

SIMILAR nonstop, constant, unending, ceaseless OPPOSITE occasional, intermittent, sporadic habitual huh-BICH-oo-ul adjective

MEANING done regularly, out of long practice; usual

MEMORY HOOK HABIT-ual: every day, same way. Every morning at seven, Grandpa Gus walks the dog, reads the paper and drinks one cup of tea, always in that order. It is his habitual routine.

Grandpa's habitual morning walk, the same route every day for forty years, always ends at the bakery.

PARTS habit a settled way of acting + -ual having to do with

SIMILAR customary, usual, routine, regular OPPOSITE occasional, rare, unusual periodic peer-ee-OD-ik adjective

MEANING happening at regular intervals

MEMORY HOOK PERIOD-ic: like the bell every PERIOD. The school bell rings at the end of every class period, right on schedule. Its ringing is periodic.

The car needs periodic oil changes, one every five thousand miles, like clockwork.

PARTS peri around + od way, path + -ic having to do with SIMILAR regular, cyclical, routine, scheduled OPPOSITE irregular, random recurrent rih-KUR-unt adjective

MEANING happening again and again

MEMORY HOOK RE-CURRENT: the current brings it back. Kai tosses the beach ball out, and the waves carry it back to him, again and again and again. Its return is recurrent.

Lost keys are a recurrent problem in our house; they go missing again every few weeks.

PARTS re back, again + curr run + -ent being or doing (an adjective ending)

SIMILAR recurring, repeated, returning, frequent OPPOSITE one-time, isolated, single continual kun-TIN-yoo-ul adjective

MEANING happening again and again, with short breaks between MEMORY HOOK continu-AL: AL asks again, and again. Al raises his hand, asks a question, waits a minute and asks another, all day long. His questions are continual: again and again, with short breaks.

The continual ringing of the phone, a new call every few minutes, made it hard to finish the report.

SIMILAR repeated, frequent, recurring, on-and-off OPPOSITE rare, occasional continuous kun-TIN-yoo-us adjective

MEANING going on without any break

MEMORY HOOK continu-OUS: One Unbroken Stream. The river flows past Sven's fishing spot day and night without stopping for even a second: One Unbroken Stream. Its flow is continuous.

At rush hour the highway is one continuous line of cars, bumper to bumper with no gaps.

PARTS contin hold together + -uous having (an adjective ending)

SIMILAR unbroken, uninterrupted, nonstop, constant OPPOSITE intermittent, broken, interrupted persistent per-SIS-tunt adjective

MEANING refusing to give up; continuing for a long time

MEMORY HOOK PER-SISTER-ent: little sister never gives up. Ivy asks her big brother to play catch ten times, twenty times, fifty times, until he finally says yes. Ivy is persistent.

The persistent puppy scratched at the door again and again until someone finally let him in.

PARTS per through, thoroughly + sist stand + -ent being or doing (an adjective ending)

SIMILAR determined, tenacious, relentless, constant OPPOSITE irresolute, fleeting, brief unremitting un-rih-MIT-ing adjective

MEANING never letting up or slackening

MEMORY HOOK UN-REMITTING: it never lets up. Hour after hour, the desert sun blazes down on the travelers, with no cloud and no shade. The heat is unremitting.

The hikers trudged on through the unremitting wind, which never eased for a moment.

PARTS un- not + re back + mitt let go, send

SIMILAR relentless, ceaseless, constant, unrelenting OPPOSITE intermittent, sporadic, occasional facilitate fuh-SIL-ih-tayt verb

MEANING to make an action or process easier

MEMORY HOOK FACIL-itate: make it FACILE, easy. Instead of dragging the heavy piano up the steps, the movers roll it up a ramp. The ramp facilitates the job: it makes it easier.

A ramp facilitated moving the piano into the house.

PARTS facil easy + -ate to make

SIMILAR ease, smooth, simplify, enable OPPOSITE hinder, hamper, impede expedite EK-spuh-dite verb

MEANING to speed up a process

MEMORY HOOK EX-PED: FEET out and running. Ped means foot. To get the package there today, the shop sends its fastest runner out the door. It expedites the delivery.

Paying extra will expedite the delivery.

PARTS ex out + ped foot

SIMILAR speed up, hasten, hurry, accelerate OPPOSITE delay, slow, hold up foster FAW-ster verb

MEANING to encourage the growth or development of MEMORY HOOK FOSTER: helps you grow FASTER. With paint, space and praise, the art teacher helps her students improve faster than they ever could alone. She fosters their talent.

The art club fosters young talent with free paint and lots of praise.

SIMILAR encourage, promote, nurture, cultivate OPPOSITE discourage, stifle, neglect nurture NUR-cher verb

MEANING to care for and help grow

MEMORY HOOK NURSE-ture: nurse it till it grows. Granny Mae nurses the baby bird with drops of water until it is strong enough to fly. She nurtures it.

Lila nurtured the tiny seedlings with water and sunshine.

SIMILAR nourish, raise, tend, foster OPPOSITE neglect, ignore cultivate KUL-tuh-vayt verb

MEANING to develop something by steady care and effort

MEMORY HOOK agri-CULT-ure: till, plant, tend. Year after year, Omar tills, plants and weeds his garden until it blooms. In the same way, you can cultivate a skill with steady care.

Rosa cultivated a love of poetry by reading one poem every night.

PARTS cult till, tend (from Latin colere) + -ate to make, to act on

SIMILAR develop, grow, tend, foster OPPOSITE neglect, abandon champion CHAM-pee-un verb

MEANING to fight for or speak up for a cause or person

MEMORY HOOK a CHAMP who fights FOR a cause. Tia speaks up for the shelter dogs at every town meeting until the town builds them a new home. She champions their cause.

Ms. Ortiz championed the idea of a school garden for years.

SIMILAR defend, back, support, fight for OPPOSITE oppose, attack, criticize endorse en-DORS verb

MEANING to publicly approve or support

MEMORY HOOK EN-DORSE: sign your name on the BACK. The chef signs the back cover of Lin's cookbook and writes, "I recommend it!" She endorses it.

Three local chefs endorsed the new cookbook.

PARTS en on + dors back

SIMILAR approve, back, support, recommend OPPOSITE oppose, reject, condemn sustain suh-STAYN verb

MEANING to keep something going; to support it over time

MEMORY HOOK SOUP-STAIN: the soup keeps them going. Their jackets have soup stains, but the hot soup keeps the hikers going all the way up the mountain. Food that keeps you going sustains you.

Hot soup sustained the hikers on the long, cold climb.

PARTS sus under, from below + tain hold

SIMILAR maintain, keep up, prolong, uphold OPPOSITE abandon, end, halt

abet uh-BET verb

MEANING to help or encourage someone, usually in doing wrong

MEMORY HOOK A BET: "I bet no one sees!". "Go on, I bet no one sees!" Rex whispers, holding the ladder steady while Pip reaches for the cookie jar. Rex abets the mischief.

The guard who looked the other way abetted the smugglers.

SIMILAR assist, aid, egg on, help OPPOSITE hinder, prevent, foil galvanize GAL-vuh-nize verb

MEANING to shock or excite people into action

MEMORY HOOK the GAL in the VAN jolts them awake. The gal in the van blasts her horn, and the sleepy campers leap out of their tents, ready to go. She galvanizes them.

The coach's speech galvanized the tired team.

PARTS -ize to make, to treat as

SIMILAR spur, rouse, energize, jolt OPPOSITE discourage, dampen, deter sovereign SOV-rin adjective

MEANING having supreme power; independent and self-governing

MEMORY HOOK sove-REIGN: REIGNS over itself. The little island kingdom reigns over itself and takes orders from no one. It is sovereign.

After a long struggle, the island became a sovereign nation with its own flag.

SIMILAR independent, self-governing, autonomous, supreme OPPOSITE dependent, subject, subordinate autonomy aw-TON-uh-mee noun

MEANING the freedom to govern yourself or make your own choices

MEMORY HOOK AUTO = SELF: you set your own rules. On her birthday, Maya gets her own key and her own schedule: she decides where to go and when. She has autonomy.

At college, Maya enjoyed the autonomy of planning her own days.

PARTS auto self + nomy law, rule

SIMILAR independence, self-rule, self-government, freedom OPPOSITE dependence, control, subjection autocrat AW-tuh-krat noun

MEANING a ruler who holds total power alone

MEMORY HOOK AUTO-CRAT: rules all by him-SELF. King Victor signs every order himself and waves away his advisers: "I decide!" A ruler who holds all the power alone is an autocrat.

The old czar was an autocrat who answered to no parliament.

PARTS auto self + crat power, rule

SIMILAR dictator, absolute ruler, tyrant, despot despot DES-put noun

MEANING a ruler who uses total power cruelly

MEMORY HOOK DES-POT: he takes every POT. The cruel king marches into the village and takes every pot of soup for himself, leaving the people hungry. He is a despot.

In the legend, a despot took half of every farmer's harvest.

SIMILAR tyrant, dictator, oppressor, autocrat tyranny TEER-uh-nee noun

MEANING cruel and unjust use of power

MEMORY HOOK TYRANT REX. King Rex makes the townspeople bow every time he passes and punishes anyone who sneezes. His cruel, unjust rule is tyranny.

The rebels fought to free their land from tyranny.

SIMILAR oppression, cruelty, dictatorship, despotism

OPPOSITE freedom, liberty, justice hegemony hih-JEM-uh-nee noun

MEANING dominance of one group or nation over others

MEMORY HOOK HEDGE-EMONY: one hedge takes over. One giant hedge spreads over the whole street until every garden sits in its shade. That hedge's hegemony is complete.

For centuries the city held hegemony over trade on the river.

SIMILAR dominance, supremacy, control, leadership bureaucracy byoo-ROK-ruh-see noun

MEANING a system run by many officials and complicated rules

MEMORY HOOK BUREAU-CRACY: rule by desks and forms. To get a library card, Pip fills out Form A, gets a stamp at Desk B, waits in Line C and is sent back to Form A. That maze of offices is bureaucracy.

Getting a permit meant months of bureaucracy and forms.

PARTS bureau desk, office (French) + cracy rule, power

SIMILAR red tape, officialdom, administration, paperwork hierarchy HIGH-er-ar-kee noun

MEANING a system that ranks people or things one above another

MEMORY HOOK HIGHER-ARCHY: who stands HIGHER. At the castle the king stands highest, then the knight, then the cook. That ranking from higher to lower is a hierarchy.

In the army's hierarchy, a general outranks a colonel, and a colonel outranks a captain.

PARTS hier sacred (Greek) + archy rule

SIMILAR ranking, pecking order, chain of command, ladder

OPPOSITE equality

oligarchy OL-ih-gar-kee noun

MEANING rule by a small group of people

MEMORY HOOK OLLIE'S GANG rules the club. Ollie and his two best friends make every rule for the whole treehouse club; the other kids get no say. Rule by a few like that is an oligarchy.

The city was run by an oligarchy of five wealthy merchant families.

PARTS olig few + archy rule

SIMILAR rule by a few, ruling clique, elite rule

OPPOSITE democracy

anarchy AN-er-kee noun

MEANING a lack of government or control; disorder

MEMORY HOOK AN-ARCHY: NO one in charge. The teacher steps out for five minutes, and with no one in charge the room turns to chaos: paper planes, spilled paint, kids on desks. That is anarchy.

When the referee left, the game dissolved into anarchy.

PARTS an without + archy rule

SIMILAR lawlessness, chaos, disorder, mayhem

OPPOSITE order, law, government peculiar pih-KYOOL-yer adjective

MEANING strange or odd; also, belonging only to one person or place

MEMORY HOOK PICKLE-YER ice cream? PECULIAR!. Grandpa Gus orders a scoop of vanilla and asks for a pickle on top. Ivy stares. How peculiar!

Grandpa has the peculiar habit of putting pickles on his ice cream.

SIMILAR strange, odd, curious, weird OPPOSITE normal, ordinary, usual eccentric ik-SEN-trik adjective

MEANING odd in behavior in a harmless, quirky way

MEMORY HOOK EC-CENTRIC: a little OFF-CENTER. Professor Edwin wears a wizard hat to the park and walks his turtle on a leash. He is a bit off-center but perfectly harmless: eccentric.

The eccentric inventor wore one red sock and one green sock every day.

PARTS ec out of + centr center + -ic having to do with SIMILAR quirky, odd, offbeat, zany OPPOSITE conventional, ordinary, normal bizarre bih-ZAR adjective

MEANING very strange and surprising

MEMORY HOOK the BIZARRE BAZAAR. At the bazaar, one stall sells socks for snakes. It is the most bizarre stall in the whole market.

Every morning, the cat performs a bizarre trick: riding the dog like a horse around the yard.

SIMILAR weird, strange, odd, surreal OPPOSITE ordinary, normal, everyday outlandish owt-LAN-dish adjective

MEANING strikingly odd, almost unbelievable

MEMORY HOOK OUT-LANDISH: from OUT of this LAND. Rex strolls into the picnic in a rainbow cape, goggles and a big helmet, an outfit from some faraway land. It is outlandish.

As usual, Rex arrived at the picnic in an outlandish outfit: a rainbow cape and swim fins.

PARTS out outside + land land + -ish like, of SIMILAR weird, far-fetched, wild, odd OPPOSITE ordinary, sensible, conventional unorthodox un-OR-thuh-doks adjective

MEANING not following the usual ways of doing things

MEMORY HOOK UN-ORTHO: NOT the usual straight way. Chef Jamal flips his pancakes with a tennis racket, and every one lands perfectly in the pan. His method is unorthodox.

For years the chef has used an unorthodox method: flipping pancakes with a tennis racket.

PARTS un- not + ortho straight, correct + dox opinion, belief

SIMILAR unconventional, nontraditional, unusual, odd

OPPOSITE orthodox, conventional, traditional incongruous in-KONG-groo-us adjective

MEANING out of place; not fitting in with its surroundings

MEMORY HOOK IN-CONGRUOUS: a penguin in the desert. A penguin waddles across the hot desert sand past a puzzled camel. It is completely out of place: incongruous.

Grandpa's heavy wool coat looked incongruous on the sunny beach among all the swimsuits.

PARTS in- not + congru agree, fit together + -ous full of

SIMILAR out of place, mismatched, jarring, odd

OPPOSITE fitting, appropriate, harmonious anomaly uh-NOM-uh-lee noun

MEANING something that departs from what is normal or expected

MEMORY HOOK NOT NORMALLY: a-NOM-aly. Sheep are not normally purple, so the one purple sheep in Omar's flock is an anomaly.

A snowy day in Miami would be an anomaly.

PARTS an not (Greek) + omal even, regular (Greek homalos)

SIMILAR oddity, exception, irregularity, abnormality

OPPOSITE norm, rule, standard aberration ab-uh-RAY-shun noun

MEANING a departure from what is normal or right, often a brief one MEMORY HOOK AB-ERR: wander away into ERROR. The train that has arrived at eight o'clock sharp every day for ten years is two hours late today. That one late day is an aberration.

The team's one loss was an aberration in an otherwise perfect season.

PARTS ab away + err wander, stray + -ation the act or state of SIMILAR deviation, exception, abnormality, departure

OPPOSITE norm, standard

idiosyncrasy id-ee-oh-SING-kruh-see noun

MEANING a habit or way of behaving all your own

MEMORY HOOK IDIO = your OWN: a quirk all your own. Uncle Felix taps his spoon on the bowl exactly three times before every meal: tap, tap, tap. It is his own little idiosyncrasy.

One of Uncle Felix's idiosyncrasies is tapping his spoon three times before every meal.

PARTS idio one's own + syn together + crasy mixture

SIMILAR quirk, peculiarity, oddity, mannerism unprecedented un-PRES-ih-den-tid adjective

MEANING never done or known before

MEMORY HOOK UN-PRE-CEDENTED: nothing like it BEFORE. Snow falls on the beach in July, something no one in town has ever seen before. The storm is unprecedented.

Snow on the beach in July was unprecedented in the town's history.

PARTS un- not + pre before + ced go

SIMILAR unheard-of, new, first-ever, record-breaking

OPPOSITE common, familiar, routine eloquent EL-uh-kwunt adjective

MEANING speaking or writing in a fluent, moving way

MEMORY HOOK E-LOQU-ENT: speaking OUT beautifully. At graduation, Rosa's words flow out so gracefully that the grandparents in the front row wipe their eyes. She is eloquent.

Rosa gave an eloquent speech that left the whole gym in tears.

PARTS e out + loqu speak + -ent being or doing (an adjective ending)

SIMILAR articulate, expressive, persuasive, well-spoken

OPPOSITE inarticulate, tongue-tied, halting loquacious loh-KWAY-shus adjective

MEANING very talkative

MEMORY HOOK lo-QUACK-cious: a duck who never stops. Daisy the duck quacks to everyone she meets, about the weather, the pond, the bread and the weather again. She is loquacious.

Our loquacious cab driver told us his whole life story before we reached the hotel.

PARTS loqu speak + -acious full of, inclined to

SIMILAR talkative, chatty, garrulous, gabby

OPPOSITE taciturn, quiet, reticent colloquial kuh-LOH-kwee-ul adjective

MEANING used in ordinary, informal conversation

MEMORY HOOK COL-LOQU: talking WITH your friends. In class Dev says, "Good afternoon, Professor." With his pals at the skate park, it's "Hey, what's up?" That everyday way of talking is colloquial.

"Gonna" is a colloquial way of saying "going to."

PARTS col together, with + loqu speak + -ial having to do with SIMILAR informal, conversational, everyday, casual

OPPOSITE formal, literary

soliloquy suh-LIL-uh-kwee noun

MEANING a speech in a play in which a character, alone, speaks thoughts aloud

MEMORY HOOK SOLO + LOQU: talking ALONE on stage. Alone on the empty stage, the prince speaks his worried thoughts out loud to no one at all. His speech is a soliloquy.

In the second act, the prince delivers a long soliloquy about whether to leave home.

PARTS soli alone + loqu speak

SIMILAR speech to oneself, thinking aloud

circumlocution sur-kum-loh-KYOO-shun noun

MEANING using many words to avoid saying something directly

MEMORY HOOK CIRCUM-LOCU: talking in CIRCLES. Asked if he ate the last cookie, Pip talks about the weather, his homework and the dog, everything except yes or no. That is circumlocution.

Asked if he ate the last cookie, Pip answered with ten minutes of circumlocution.

PARTS circum around + locut speak + -ion the act of SIMILAR beating around the bush, wordiness, evasion, roundabout talk

OPPOSITE directness, bluntness elocution el-uh-KYOO-shun noun

MEANING the skill of pronouncing words clearly when speaking in public

MEMORY HOOK E-LOCU-TION: speaking OUT, clear as a bell. Professor Edwin rings a bell, and Maya repeats the tongue twister until every sound rings out clearly. She is practicing elocution.

Years of elocution lessons gave the actor a clear, ringing voice.

PARTS e out + locut speak + -ion the act of SIMILAR articulation, enunciation, delivery, public speaking diction DIK-shun noun

MEANING the choice of words; also, how clearly words are spoken

MEMORY HOOK DICTIONary: choosing the words you SAY. Nell flips through her dictionary to pick the perfect word: not “shine” but “glimmer.” Her careful choice of words is her diction.

The poet’s diction was simple: short, everyday words that hit hard.

PARTS dict say + -ion the act or manner of SIMILAR wording, word choice, phrasing, enunciation edict EE-dikt noun

MEANING an official order from someone in authority

MEMORY HOOK E-DICT: an order spoken OUT. The royal herald unrolls a scroll and reads the queen’s new order aloud: every Friday is now pie day! That official order is an edict.

The queen’s edict declared every Friday a holiday.

PARTS e out + dict say

SIMILAR decree, order, command, proclamation indict in-DITE verb

MEANING to formally charge someone with a crime

MEMORY HOOK in-DITE: the INVITE no one wants. The court’s letter is an invitation nobody wants: it formally charges the thief with stealing the town’s golden goose. To indict is to charge someone with a crime.

The grand jury voted to indict the banker for stealing from his clients.

PARTS in in, against + dict say, declare

SIMILAR charge, accuse, prosecute

OPPOSITE acquit, exonerate, clear interlocutor in-ter-LOK-yuh-ter noun

MEANING a person taking part in a conversation

MEMORY HOOK INTER-LOCU-TOR: the one you speak BETWEEN. Across the café table, Lin and Omar trade ideas, each listening and answering in turn. Each is the other’s interlocutor.

Grandpa is a patient interlocutor; he lets you finish every sentence.

PARTS inter between + locut speak + -or one who

SIMILAR conversation partner, speaker, questioner arrogant AIR-uh-gunt adjective

MEANING acting as if you are more important than others

MEMORY HOOK AIR-OGANT: nose high in the AIR. Victor struts down the street with his nose so high in the air that he never sees the people saying hello. He is arrogant.

The arrogant new player refused to pass the ball to anyone.

PARTS ar to, toward (from ad) + rog ask, claim + -ant being or doing (an adjective ending)

SIMILAR conceited, superior, overbearing, haughty OPPOSITE humble, modest, meek haughty HAW-tee adjective

MEANING proud in a cold way that looks down on others

MEMORY HOOK HAUGH-ty = HIGH and mighty. Lady Greta stands on a box so she can look down on everyone, and she will not speak to anyone below her. She is haughty.

The haughty duchess would not even glance at the servants.

SIMILAR arrogant, snobbish, superior, lofty OPPOSITE humble, modest, friendly condescending kon-dih-SEN-ding adjective

MEANING talking down to others as if they were less smart or important

MEMORY HOOK con-DESCEND: talks DOWN to you. Rex bends way down to talk to the head chef as if she were a baby: "This is a SPOON." His tone is condescending.

The salesman used a condescending tone, explaining what a "button" was.

PARTS con with, together + descend come down

SIMILAR patronizing, superior, snobbish, arrogant OPPOSITE respectful, humble pompous POM-pus adjective

MEANING self-important and showy in speech or manner

MEMORY HOOK POMP-OUS: puffed up with POMP. The duke arrives with a drumroll, a velvet cape and a speech all about how wonderful he is. He is pompous.

The pompous duke gave a twenty-minute speech about himself at the ribbon cutting.

PARTS pomp grand display, procession + -ous full of

SIMILAR self-important, puffed-up, pretentious, arrogant OPPOSITE modest, unpretentious, down-to-earth

imperious im-PEER-ee-us adjective

MEANING commanding and bossy, expecting to be obeyed

MEMORY HOOK IMPERI-ous: bossy as an EMPEROR. From his high chair, little Theo points like an emperor: "Juice! Now!" And Dad runs to obey. Theo is imperious.

With an imperious wave, the toddler sent his father back for more juice.

PARTS imper command (from Latin imperium) + -ious full of SIMILAR domineering, bossy, overbearing, arrogant OPPOSITE meek, humble, submissive supercilious soo-per-SIL-ee-us adjective

MEANING scornfully superior; looking down your nose at others

MEMORY HOOK SUPER-CILIUM: one raised EYEBROW. The snooty waiter raises one eyebrow at Pip's muddy sneakers: "Hmm. Are you lost?" His look is supercilious.

The supercilious waiter raised an eyebrow at Pip's muddy sneakers.

PARTS super above + cili eyelid + -ous full of SIMILAR snobbish, disdainful, superior, arrogant OPPOSITE humble, respectful, friendly hubris HYOO-bris noun

MEANING too much pride, the kind that leads to a downfall

MEMORY HOOK a HUGE BRAG before a fall. "No wave can beat my castle!" Rex brags, building right at the water's edge. The very next wave flattens it. His hubris brought him down.

In the old myths, a hero's hubris usually ends in disaster.

SIMILAR arrogance, overconfidence, excessive pride, conceit OPPOSITE humility, modesty modest MOD-ist adjective

MEANING not boasting about your abilities or achievements

MEMORY HOOK MOD-EST: never says he's the BEST. Kai wins first prize at the science fair but just says, "My friends helped a lot." He never calls himself the best. He is modest.

Though she had won the state prize, Kai's sister was too modest to mention it.

SIMILAR humble, unassuming, self-effacing, unpretentious OPPOSITE arrogant, boastful, conceited unassuming un-uh-SOO-ming adjective

MEANING not drawing attention to yourself; quiet and humble

MEMORY HOOK UN-ASSUMING: you'd never ASSUME. The quiet woman in the plain sweater, reading in the back row, is the famous author everyone came to see. You'd never assume it: she is unassuming.

The unassuming man in the back row turned out to be the famous author.

PARTS un- not + assume take on airs (an old sense)

SIMILAR humble, modest, unpretentious, low-key

OPPOSITE pretentious, showy, arrogant self-effacing self-ih-FAY-sing adjective

MEANING keeping yourself in the background; humble

MEMORY HOOK SELF-ERASING: she rubs herSELF out. When the team photo is taken, the coach steps to the very edge, nearly out of the picture, and says, "It was all them." She is self-effacing.

The self-effacing coach gave all the credit to her players.

PARTS self oneself + efface to rub out, erase

SIMILAR humble, modest, shy, retiring

OPPOSITE boastful, attention-seeking, arrogant ethical ETH-ih-kul adjective

MEANING following principles of right conduct; morally right

MEMORY HOOK EDITH-ICAL: Edith does the right thing. When a customer pays twenty dollars too much, Edith runs down the street to give it back. Edith is ethical.

An ethical reporter checks every fact before publishing a story.

PARTS eth character, custom (Greek ethos) + -ical having to do with

SIMILAR moral, principled, honorable, right

OPPOSITE unethical, corrupt, dishonest virtuous VUR-choo-us adjective

MEANING having high moral standards; good

MEMORY HOOK VIR-TU-OUS: VERY TRUE and good. Sir Omar keeps every promise, shares his bread and never tells a lie: he is very true and very good. He is virtuous.

The virtuous shopkeeper returned the lost wallet with every dollar still inside.

PARTS virtu goodness, excellence (Latin virtus) + -ous full of SIMILAR good, moral, upright, honorable

OPPOSITE wicked, corrupt, immoral propriety pruh-PRY-ih-tee noun

MEANING correct, proper behavior

MEMORY HOOK PROPER-iety: doing what is PROPER. At the fancy dinner, Ivy keeps her napkin on her lap, her elbows off the table and her "thank you" ready. She shows perfect propriety.

Out of propriety, the guests waited for the host to sit before they began eating.

PARTS propri one's own (Latin proprius) + -ety the state or quality of SIMILAR correctness, decency, good manners, etiquette OPPOSITE impropriety, rudeness decorum dih-KOR-um noun

MEANING polite, dignified behavior that suits the occasion

MEMORY HOOK DECOR-um: manners to match the fancy DECOR. In the grand palace hall, guests bow, speak softly and wait their turn, matching the elegant decor. They show perfect decorum.

The guests at the royal dinner behaved with perfect decorum.

SIMILAR dignity, good manners, etiquette, politeness OPPOSITE rudeness, impropriety, unruliness probity PROH-bih-tee noun

MEANING complete honesty and integrity

MEMORY HOOK PROBE-ITY: probe all you want, it's honest. The inspectors probe every page of Treasurer Lin's books and find every penny in its place. Her probity is complete.

The judge was known for her probity; no one ever doubted her rulings.

PARTS prob good, honest (Latin probus) + -ity the state or quality of

SIMILAR integrity, honesty, trustworthiness, uprightness OPPOSITE dishonesty, corruption rectitude REK-tih-tood noun

MEANING moral uprightness; strict honesty and goodness

MEMORY HOOK RECT = STRAIGHT: an upright life. Judge Ada stands as straight as a ruler and lives the same way: she has never told a lie or taken a bribe. Her rectitude is famous.

Her rectitude made her the obvious choice to guard the prize money.

PARTS rect straight, right + -itude the state or quality of

SIMILAR uprightness, integrity, righteousness, honesty OPPOSITE wickedness, corruption, dishonesty corrupt kuh-RUPT adjective

MEANING dishonest, especially in exchange for money or power

MEMORY HOOK CORE-RUPT: rotten to the CORE. The referee pockets a bag of coins and calls every play for the team that paid him. Rotten to the core, he is corrupt.

The corrupt referee was paid to call every play for one team.

PARTS cor thoroughly (from con) + rupt break

SIMILAR dishonest, crooked, bribable, shady OPPOSITE honest, ethical, upright

venal VEE-nul adjective

MEANING willing to be bribed; open to doing wrong for money

MEMORY HOOK VEND-AL: pay him like a VENDING machine. Drop a coin in his hand and the guard opens the gate for anyone, like a vending machine. He is venal.

The venal guard let anyone through the gate for a gold coin.

PARTS ven sale (Latin venum) + -al having to do with SIMILAR bribable, corruptible, mercenary, crooked OPPOSITE incorruptible, honest, upright nefarious nih-FAIR-ee-us adjective

MEANING wicked or criminal

MEMORY HOOK NE-FAIR-ious: NOT FAIR, but wicked. Late at night the villain sneaks off with the town clock so that everyone will miss the fair. His scheme is nefarious.

The villain's nefarious plan was to steal the town's clock so everyone would miss the fair.

PARTS ne not + fas what is right

SIMILAR wicked, villainous, criminal, crooked OPPOSITE virtuous, good, noble reprehensible rep-rih-HEN-suh-bul adjective

MEANING deserving strong blame

MEMORY HOOK REPRIMAND-IBLE: deserves a REPRIMAND. Rex knocks over little Theo's block tower on purpose, and Tia scolds him sharply. Such behavior is reprehensible.

Rex behaved reprehensibly when he knocked down a little kid's block tower on purpose.

PARTS re back + prehens seize, grasp + -ible deserving to be

SIMILAR shameful, disgraceful, blameworthy, deplorable OPPOSITE praiseworthy, admirable, commendable rhetoric RET-er-ik noun

MEANING the art of persuasive speaking or writing; also, showy talk with little substance

MEMORY HOOK RHETOR = SPEAKER: the art of winning a crowd. With a pause here and a question there, Jamal wins over the whole crowd using nothing but well-chosen words. He is a master of rhetoric.

The debate coach taught rhetoric: how to open strong, use examples and end with a question.*

PARTS rhetor public speaker (Greek) + -ic the art of SIMILAR oratory, persuasion, eloquence, bombast assert uh-SURT verb

MEANING to state something firmly and confidently

MEMORY HOOK a SERGEANT doesn't ask: he ASSERTS. "We march at dawn!" the sergeant says, firm and sure, without a trace of doubt. He doesn't ask; he asserts.

Zoe asserted that her cat could open doors, and then the cat did.

PARTS as to (from ad) + sert join, put

SIMILAR declare, affirm, state, insist

OPPOSITE deny, retract contend kun-TEND verb

MEANING to argue that something is true; also, to compete

MEMORY HOOK CON-TEND: a CONTEST of arguments. In the class debate, Maya argues hard that summer should be longer, and she has three reasons ready. She contends it.

Maya contends that summer vacation should be a month longer.

PARTS con with, against + tend stretch, strive

SIMILAR argue, maintain, insist, hold

OPPOSITE concede, deny allege uh-LEJ verb

MEANING to claim something, especially wrongdoing, without proof yet

MEMORY HOOK a-LEDGE: out on a LEDGE with no proof. Pip says his sister ate his cupcake, but he has nothing to back it up, only a guess. He is out on a ledge: he alleges it.

Pip alleged that his sister ate the last cupcake, but he had no proof.

SIMILAR claim, charge, accuse

OPPOSITE deny

refute rih-FYOOT verb

MEANING to prove that a claim is wrong

MEMORY HOOK RE-FUTE: PROOF puts the boot to it. Rex claims the moon is made of cheese, so Sami shows him a moon rock in the science book. Sami refutes the claim: he proves it wrong.

Sami refuted Rex's claim by showing him a photo of a real moon rock.

SIMILAR disprove, debunk, discredit, invalidate OPPOSITE prove, confirm, support

rebut rih-BUT verb

MEANING to argue against a claim by giving an answer

MEMORY HOOK RE-BUT: bounce it right BACK. Each time Maya makes a point, Dev bounces an answer right back, like a ball off a wall. He rebuts every claim, though he may not win.

Each speaker had two minutes to rebut the other side's points.

SIMILAR counter, answer, contradict, dispute OPPOSITE accept, concede, agree with concede kun-SEED verb

MEANING to admit that something is true, often unwillingly

MEMORY HOOK con-CEDE: YIELD the point. After a long chess game, Grandpa tips over his own king and smiles: "You win." He concedes.

After the long chess game, Grandpa conceded that Kai had won.

PARTS con thoroughly, with + cede yield, go

SIMILAR admit, acknowledge, grant, allow OPPOSITE deny, dispute, contest advocate AD-vuh-kayt verb

MEANING to speak or argue in favor of MEMORY HOOK AD-VOC: add your VOICE for it. Rosa adds her voice to the call for a crosswalk near the school, speaking up at every meeting. She advocates for it.

Rosa advocated for a crosswalk in front of the school.

PARTS ad to + voc voice, call + -ate to act on

SIMILAR support, champion, promote, argue for OPPOSITE oppose, attack, discourage exhort ig-ZORT verb

MEANING to urge strongly and earnestly

MEMORY HOOK EX-HORT: HOLLER them forward. On the last lap, the coach runs alongside the track, hollering, “Faster! You can do it!” She exhorts her runners.

The coach exhorted her runners to give everything on the last lap.

PARTS ex thoroughly + hort urge, encourage

SIMILAR urge, press, encourage, implore OPPOSITE discourage, dissuade polemic puh-LEM-ik noun

MEANING a strong written or spoken attack on an idea

MEMORY HOOK POLE-MIC: grab the MIC and attack. Victor grabs the mic and launches a fiery attack on the new school schedule, calling it the worst idea in history. His speech is a polemic.

His letter to the editor was a fiery polemic against the new parking rules.

PARTS polem war (Greek polemos) + -ic having to do with SIMILAR diatribe, attack, tirade, broadside OPPOSITE tribute, praise serene suh-REEN adjective

MEANING calm and peaceful; untroubled

MEMORY HOOK a se-RENE SCENE. High on the mountain, Nana Lou sits on a rock and watches the sun go down over the quiet valley. It is a serene scene.

At dawn the lake was serene*, without a ripple or a sound.*

SIMILAR peaceful, calm, untroubled, placid OPPOSITE agitated, troubled, turbulent tranquil TRANG-kwil adjective

MEANING quiet and still; free from disturbance

MEMORY HOOK a toy TRAIN and a QUILT: TRAN-QUIL. Theo’s toy train sits still on the rug while he sleeps under his warm quilt. The whole room is quiet and tranquil.

By evening the stormy sea had turned tranquil*.*

SIMILAR peaceful, quiet, placid, untroubled OPPOSITE noisy, turbulent, chaotic composed kum-POHZD adjective

MEANING in control of your feelings; not flustered

MEMORY HOOK the COMPOSER stays COMPOSED. When the stage lights flicker during her recital, Lila keeps playing without missing a note. She stays composed.

Even when the lights went out, the pianist stayed composed and went on playing.

SIMILAR collected, self-possessed, poised, cool OPPOSITE flustered, agitated, rattled nonchalant non-shuh-LAHNT adjective

MEANING casually unconcerned, as if nothing much matters

MEMORY HOOK NON-CHALANT: "I shall NOT care.". Everyone is hunting for the lost keys, but the cat just yawns in the sunny window: "I shall not care." The cat is nonchalant.

With a nonchalant shrug, Dev said he had probably won the contest.

PARTS non not + chal be concerned (French chaloir)

SIMILAR casual, unconcerned, offhand, blasé OPPOSITE anxious, concerned, worried unflappable un-FLAP-uh-bul adjective

MEANING staying calm even in a sudden crisis

MEMORY HOOK UN-FLAP-able: never flaps like a chicken. The chickens flap and squawk in a panic, but Nana Lou calmly scoops them up one by one. She is unflappable.

The unflappable pilot landed the plane smoothly in the storm.

PARTS un- not + flap a state of panic (informal) + -able able to be

SIMILAR cool, collected, unruffled, unexcitable OPPOSITE excitable, jittery, panicky stoic STOH-ik adjective

MEANING enduring pain or hardship without complaining

MEMORY HOOK STO-IC: STONE-faced, no complaints. In freezing rain and howling wind, Sven hauls in his nets hour after hour without one complaint. He is stoic.

The fisherman stoically hauled his nets through the freezing rain for hours, without one complaint.

PARTS sto porch (Greek stoa) + -ic having to do with SIMILAR uncomplaining, long-suffering, patient, impassive OPPOSITE complaining, whiny, emotional impassive im-PAS-iv adjective

MEANING showing no feeling on your face

MEMORY HOOK IM-PASS-ive: NO PASSION shows. The kids tell jokes and make silly faces, but the palace guard's face does not move a bit. He is impassive.

The palace guard stared impassively ahead while the children made silly faces at him.

PARTS im- not + pass feel, suffer + -ive tending to

SIMILAR expressionless, unemotional, poker-faced, stolid

OPPOSITE emotional, expressive, impassioned equanimity ee-kwuh-NIM-ih-tee noun

MEANING calmness and evenness of temper, especially under stress

MEMORY HOOK EQUA-NIMITY: an EQUAL, even mind. Whether her team wins or loses, Coach Ada's mood stays perfectly level, like a balanced scale. She meets both with equanimity.

Coach Ada met both the big win and the bad loss with equanimity.

PARTS equ even, equal + anim mind, spirit + -ity the state of

SIMILAR composure, calm, poise, level-headedness

OPPOSITE agitation, panic, anxiety imperturbable im-per-TUR-buh-bul adjective

MEANING so calm that nothing can upset you

MEMORY HOOK IM-PERTURB-able: nothing DISTURBS him. The wind howls, an umbrella flies past and hats blow away, but Grandpa calmly turns the page of his newspaper. He is imperturbable.

Grandpa is imperturbable; he reads his paper calmly even in a thunderstorm.

PARTS im- not + per thoroughly + turb disturb, stir up + -able able to be

SIMILAR unshakable, unruffled, untroubled, unexcitable

OPPOSITE excitable, nervous, touchy phlegmatic fleg-MAT-ik adjective

MEANING calm and unexcitable by nature; slow to show feeling

MEMORY HOOK a FROG on a MAT: fleg-MAT-ic. While the ducks splash and squawk around him, the big frog sits on his lily pad, blinking slowly. Nothing excites him; he is phlegmatic.

Even as a baby, Sam was phlegmatic: he rarely cried, rarely squealed and hardly ever fussed.

PARTS phlegm one of the four "humors" of old medicine + -atic having to do with

SIMILAR unemotional, stolid, unexcitable, placid

OPPOSITE excitable, passionate, emotional analogy uh-NAL-uh-jee noun

MEANING a comparison that explains one thing by its likeness to another MEMORY HOOK "The brain is LIKE a computer". To explain how the brain stores memories, Professor Edwin points from his head to his laptop: "It works like this!" That comparison is an analogy.

The coach used an analogy: a team is like a clock, and every little gear matters.*

PARTS ana according to (Greek) + log word, reason, ratio

SIMILAR comparison, parallel, likeness, correspondence

OPPOSITE contrast akin uh-KIN adjective

MEANING similar or related

MEMORY HOOK A-KIN: alike as KIN. Kai's puppy and Granny Mae's old dog have the same spots, the same floppy ears and the same bark. They look like kin: they are akin.

Her fear of heights is akin to her brother's fear of deep water.

PARTS a- of (an old English prefix) + kin family

SIMILAR similar, related, alike, comparable

OPPOSITE unlike, different, unrelated kindred KIN-drid adjective

MEANING alike in nature or interests; related

MEMORY HOOK KIN-DRED SPIRITS: family at heart. Rosa and Nana Lou reach for the same old mystery novel and burst out laughing. They are like family at heart: kindred spirits.

Rosa and Nana Lou turned out to be kindred spirits, both crazy about mystery novels.

PARTS kin family + -red condition (an old English ending, as in hatred)

SIMILAR related, like-minded, similar, allied

OPPOSITE unrelated, dissimilar, alien disparate DIS-per-it adjective

MEANING so different that they can hardly be compared

MEMORY HOOK DIS-PARROT and a WHALE. A tiny feathered parrot and a huge swimming whale: they share almost nothing. They are disparate.

The club brought together disparate people: a pilot, a poet, a plumber and a pastry chef.

PARTS dis apart

SIMILAR different, dissimilar, unrelated, distinct

OPPOSITE similar, alike, akin discrepancy dih-SKREP-un-see noun

MEANING a difference between things that should match

MEMORY HOOK DIS-CREPE-ancy: 3 CREPES paid, 2 served. The ticket says three crepes, but Lin's plate holds only two. She spots the discrepancy.

Lin noticed a discrepancy between the receipt and the number of crepes on her plate.

PARTS dis apart + crep sound, rattle (Latin crepare) + -ancy the state of

SIMILAR mismatch, inconsistency, difference, gap OPPOSITE agreement, consistency, match juxtapose JUK-stuh-pohz verb

MEANING to place side by side, especially to compare or contrast

MEMORY HOOK JUXTA-POSE: POSE them side by side. For the team photo, Rosa poses the giant center right beside the littlest fan. To juxtapose is to place things side by side.

The photo juxtaposes the tallest player on the team with the tiny mascot.

PARTS juxta beside, near + pose place, put

SIMILAR place side by side, set beside, compare, pair OPPOSITE separate

dichotomy dye-KOT-uh-mee noun

MEANING a split into two opposite parts or groups

MEMORY HOOK DI-CHOTOMY: CUT in TWO. At summer camp, everyone is split into two opposite teams, Red and Blue, and every game is Red against Blue. That split is a dichotomy.

The story sets up a sharp dichotomy between the noisy city and the quiet farm.

PARTS dicho in two + tomy cutting

SIMILAR division, split, contrast, divide OPPOSITE unity

antithesis an-TITH-uh-sis noun

MEANING the direct opposite

MEMORY HOOK ANTI-THESIS: the total OPPOSITE. Pip loves noise, mess and speed; his twin, Lila, loves quiet, order and books. Lila is Pip's antithesis.

Pip's messy room is the antithesis of his twin sister's neat one.

PARTS anti against, opposite + thesis a placing, a statement

SIMILAR opposite, reverse, contrary, converse OPPOSITE equivalent

nuance NOO-ahns noun

MEANING a subtle difference in meaning, feeling or tone

MEMORY HOOK NEW-ANCE: one tiny NEW shade. Nell mixes seven blues for the sky, each just one drop lighter than the last. Each tiny shade of difference is a nuance.

A good actor can show a dozen nuances of sadness with just her eyes.

PARTS -ance the state or quality of (a noun ending)

SIMILAR shade, subtlety, fine distinction, hint paradox PAIR-uh-doks noun

MEANING a statement that seems to contradict itself but may be true

MEMORY HOOK PAIR-A-DUCKS. A pair of wise ducks quack, "The more you learn, the less you know!" It sounds impossible but may be true: a paradox.

"The more you learn, the less you know" is a famous paradox.

PARTS para beyond, against + dox opinion, belief

SIMILAR contradiction, seeming contradiction, inconsistency commence kuh-MENS verb

MEANING to begin, especially in a formal way

MEMORY HOOK COMMENCEMENT: the day your new life BEGINS. Graduation is called commencement because it is a beginning, not an end. On that day, the graduates commence their grown-up lives.

The concert will commence at seven o'clock sharp.

SIMILAR begin, start, open, launch

OPPOSITE end, finish, conclude initiate ih-NISH-ee-ayt verb

MEANING to set something going; also, to admit a new member to a group

MEMORY HOOK INITIAL-ate: take the INITIAL step. At the party everyone stands around shyly until Zoe takes the initial step onto the dance floor. She initiates the dancing.

Zoe initiated the dancing by stepping onto the empty floor.

PARTS init beginning + -ate to make, to act on SIMILAR set in motion, institute, trigger, induct

OPPOSITE end, halt, terminate inaugurate in-AW-gyuh-rayt verb

MEANING to open or begin with a formal ceremony; to install in office

MEMORY HOOK IN AUGUST: a grand OPENING. In August the town opens its new bridge with a band, balloons and a speech by Granny Mae. They inaugurate it.

The town inaugurated its new library with a ribbon, a band and a cake.

PARTS in in, into + augur one who reads signs (from birds) + -ate to make, to act on

SIMILAR open, launch, begin, install

OPPOSITE close, end, conclude inception in-SEP-shun noun

MEANING the moment at which something is founded or begun

MEMORY HOOK IN-CEPT-ion: the moment the idea is TAKEN IN. Lin bites into her grandmother's bread and cries, "I'll open a bakery!" That moment was the bakery's inception.

From its inception, the bakery was famous for its cinnamon rolls.

PARTS in in, on + cept take (from Latin capere) + -ion the act of

SIMILAR beginning, start, founding, outset

OPPOSITE end, conclusion, close genesis JEN-uh-sis noun

MEANING the origin or birth of something

MEMORY HOOK GEN-esis: the BIRTH of it. Sami waters a tiny sprout beside the giant old oak. Every great tree has its genesis, its birth, in one small seed.

The genesis of the giant oak was a single acorn.

PARTS gen birth, origin + -esis process (Greek)

SIMILAR origin, birth, source, beginning

OPPOSITE end, finale, conclusion onset ON-set noun

MEANING the beginning of something, usually something unpleasant

MEMORY HOOK ON-SET: the storm SETS ON. The sky darkens and the first raindrops fall: the storm is setting on. At its onset, the picnickers grab their baskets and run.

At the onset of the storm, the picnickers grabbed their baskets and ran.

SIMILAR outbreak, arrival, first signs, coming

OPPOSITE end, close nascent NAY-sunt adjective

MEANING just born; only beginning to exist or grow

MEMORY HOOK NASC = BORN: a just-hatched chick. The chick has just pecked its way out of the shell, and its life has only begun. Something that new is nascent.

With six teams and one muddy field, the town's nascent soccer league was only a few weeks old.

PARTS nasc be born + -ent being or doing (an adjective ending)

SIMILAR budding, emerging, developing, embryonic

OPPOSITE mature, established, dying incipient in-SIP-ee-unt adjective

MEANING just beginning to appear or develop, often as an early sign of trouble

MEMORY HOOK IN-SIP-ient: the first little SIP of trouble. A single drip from the ceiling is the first little sip of a leak. Fix it now, while the leak is still incipient, before the roof gives way.

Dad spotted the incipient leak while it was still a single drip.

PARTS in in, on + cip take (from Latin capere) + -ient being (an adjective ending)

SIMILAR emerging, developing, early, beginning

OPPOSITE full-blown, developed, mature fledgling FLEJ-ling adjective

MEANING new and inexperienced, like a young bird learning to fly

MEMORY HOOK a FLEDGLING bird: first wobbly flight. Like a baby bird on its first wobbly flight, Kai's brand-new lemonade stand is just getting started. It is a fledgling business.

The fledgling pilot gripped the controls nervously on her very first solo flight.

PARTS fledge grow flight feathers + -ling a small or young one

SIMILAR new, inexperienced, budding, untested

OPPOSITE established, experienced, veteran rudimentary roo-duh-MEN-tuh-ree adjective

MEANING basic and simple; not developed beyond the first stage

MEMORY HOOK RUDE = ROUGH: just the basics. Pip's first treehouse is rough and simple: four boards, a rope and a blanket for a roof. It is rudimentary.

Pip's first treehouse was rudimentary: four boards and a blanket for a roof.*

PARTS rudi rough, unformed + -mentary having to do with SIMILAR basic, elementary, simple, crude

OPPOSITE advanced, sophisticated, complex hinder HIN-der verb

MEANING to get in the way of; to slow down

MEMORY HOOK HIND-er: tugged from BEHIND. Ivy tries to walk to the bus, but the puppy hangs onto her backpack from behind. The puppy hinders her.

The puppy tugging at her backpack hindered Ivy's walk to the bus.

SIMILAR hold back, slow, hamper, impede OPPOSITE help, aid, facilitate hamper HAM-per verb

MEANING to hold back or slow down progress

MEMORY HOOK a heavy HAMPER slows the hike. Dev lugs the huge picnic hamper up the steep hill, one slow step at a time. The heavy basket hampers his climb.

The giant picnic basket hampered Dev's climb up the hill.

SIMILAR hinder, slow, restrict, handicap OPPOSITE help, assist, aid impede im-PEED verb

MEANING to slow or block movement or progress

MEMORY HOOK IM-PED: FEET caught in the mud. Pip's boots sink deep into the mud, and every step is a struggle. The mud impedes him: it catches his feet.

Thick mud impeded the hikers at every step.

PARTS im in + ped foot
SIMILAR hinder, slow, delay, hold up OPPOSITE aid, speed, facilitate obstruct ub-STRUKT verb

MEANING to block a path, passage or view

MEMORY HOOK OB-STRUCT: a STRUCTURE in the way. A huge log lies across the road like a wall, and the bus cannot get past. The log obstructs the road.

A fallen tree obstructed the road to the lake.

PARTS ob against, in the way + struct build, pile up SIMILAR block, bar, clog, barricade OPPOSITE clear, open, free

thwart THWORT verb

MEANING to stop someone from carrying out a plan

MEMORY HOOK THWACK! the goalie THWARTS the shot. Dev winds up for the winning goal, but Maya leaps and thwacks the ball away. She thwarts his plan.

The goalie thwarted every shot in the second half.

SIMILAR foil, frustrate, defeat, stop OPPOSITE help, assist, enable inhibit in-HIB-it verb

MEANING to hold back or restrain

MEMORY HOOK IN-HIB: shyness HOLDS her IN. Lila knows the answer, but shyness holds her in, and her hand stays down. Shyness inhibits her.

Shyness inhibited Lila from raising her hand, though she knew the answer.

PARTS in in + hib hold (from Latin habere)

SIMILAR restrain, suppress, curb, discourage OPPOSITE encourage, allow, promote encumber en-KUM-ber verb

MEANING to weigh down with a burden

MEMORY HOOK en-CUCUMBER-ed: weighed down. Sven staggers home with a giant crate of a hundred cucumbers in his arms. He is encumbered: so weighed down he can barely move.

The hikers were encumbered by tents, pots and three days of food.

PARTS en in, into + cumber hindrance, heavy load

SIMILAR burden, weigh down, saddle, load OPPOSITE free, relieve, unburden stymie STY-mee verb

MEANING to block completely; to leave stuck or stumped

MEMORY HOOK STY-MIE: the pig blocks the STY. The giant pig flops across the gate of its sty, and no matter what Farmer Omar tries, he cannot get in. He is stymied.

The last riddle in the book stymied the whole family.

SIMILAR foil, stump, frustrate, stall OPPOSITE help, enable, aid preclude prih-KLOOD verb

MEANING to make impossible in advance; to rule out

MEMORY HOOK PRE-CLUDE: CLOSED beforehand. The museum door was locked before anyone arrived, so no one could get in at all. The locked door precluded any visit.

The locked gate precluded any visit to the garden.

PARTS pre before + clud shut, close

SIMILAR rule out, prevent, prohibit, eliminate OPPOSITE allow, permit, enable forestall for-STAWL verb

MEANING to prevent something by acting first

MEMORY HOOK FORE-STALL: stop it BEFORE it starts. Just before the kids get hungry and cranky, Mom hands out sandwiches. She forestalls the meltdown.

Mom forestalled a meltdown by handing out snacks before the kids got hungry.

SIMILAR prevent, head off, avert, preempt OPPOSITE invite, allow accountable uh-KOWN-tuh-bul adjective

MEANING responsible for your actions and expected to explain them

MEMORY HOOK ACCOUNT-ABLE: able to give an ACCOUNT. Maya, the class treasurer, can show where every dollar of the trip money went, down to the last receipt. She is accountable.

As class treasurer, Maya was accountable for every dollar of the trip fund.

PARTS account a report, an explanation + -able able to, liable to

SIMILAR responsible, answerable, liable OPPOSITE unaccountable, exempt culpable KUL-puh-bul adjective

MEANING deserving blame

MEMORY HOOK CULP-able: the CULPRIT is to blame. Muddy paw prints lead straight from the kitchen to the dog's bed. The dog is the culprit: he is culpable.

The muddy paw prints showed that the dog was culpable.

PARTS culp fault, blame + -able deserving to be

SIMILAR blameworthy, guilty, at fault, responsible OPPOSITE innocent, blameless, guiltless exculpate EK-skul-payt verb

MEANING to show that someone is not guilty

MEMORY HOOK EX-CULP: blame taken OUT. The camera shows the cat, not Ivy, knocking over the vase. The video takes the blame right out of Ivy's hands: it exculpates her.

The video from the hallway camera exculpated Ivy: it showed the cat knocking over the vase.

PARTS ex out, away from + culp fault, blame + -ate to make, to act on

SIMILAR clear, exonerate, vindicate, acquit OPPOSITE incriminate, accuse, blame exonerate ig-ZON-uh-rayt verb

MEANING to clear completely of blame

MEMORY HOOK EX-ONUS: the load of blame lifted OFF. When the real thief is caught, the heavy sack of blame falls off Jamal's shoulders. He is exonerated.

When the real thief confessed, the police exonerated the gardener.

PARTS ex out, off + oner burden (Latin onus) + -ate to make, to act on

SIMILAR clear, acquit, absolve, vindicate OPPOSITE convict, blame, incriminate acquit uh-KWIT verb

MEANING to declare someone not guilty in a court

MEMORY HOOK AC-QUIT: you can QUIT worrying: not guilty!. The jury foreman stands and reads, "Not guilty!" Rosa can quit worrying: the court has acquitted her.

The jury acquitted the baker of stealing the prize-winning pie.

SIMILAR clear, free, discharge, exonerate OPPOSITE convict, condemn absolve ub-ZOLV verb

MEANING to free someone from guilt, blame or a duty

MEMORY HOOK AB-SOLVE: SOLVED and set free. Pip breaks Grandma's teacup and expects a scolding, but she hugs him: "Accidents happen. You're forgiven." She absolves him.

Grandma absolved Pip of the broken teacup: "Accidents happen."

PARTS ab away, from + solve loosen

SIMILAR forgive, pardon, clear, release OPPOSITE blame, condemn, charge vindicate VIN-dih-kayt verb

MEANING to clear from blame or doubt; to prove right

MEMORY HOOK VIN = WIN: proved RIGHT at last. Everyone laughed at Sami for saying the old well still had water, until it gushed. He wins: the gushing well vindicates him.

When the old well gushed water, Sami felt vindicated.

PARTS vindic claim, defend + -ate to make, to act on

SIMILAR justify, exonerate, clear, prove right OPPOSITE discredit, incriminate, accuse condone kun-DOHN verb

MEANING to accept or overlook wrongdoing

MEMORY HOOK CON-DONE: "Eh, it's DONE all the time". Pip peeks at the answer sheet, and the substitute just shrugs: "Eh, it's done all the time." By shrugging it off, he condones the cheating.

The school does not condone copying homework.

PARTS con thoroughly + done give (Latin donare)

SIMILAR overlook, excuse, tolerate, allow OPPOSITE condemn, forbid, denounce punitive PYOO-nih-tiv adjective

MEANING meant as punishment

MEMORY HOOK PUNI-tive: meant to PUNISH. The librarian posts a sign: one late book, a five-hundred-dollar fine! A fine like that is not a reminder; it is punitive.

A five-hundred-dollar fine for one overdue library book would be punitive.

PARTS puni punish (Latin punire) + -tive tending to SIMILAR penalizing, disciplinary, harsh, corrective OPPOSITE rewarding, lenient, merciful clemency KLEM-un-see noun

MEANING mercy, especially in punishing someone

MEMORY HOOK CLEMENTINE CLEMENCY: mercy, served sweet. Instead of punishing the hungry boy who took a loaf of bread, the queen hands him a basket of clementines. She shows clemency.

The queen showed clemency to the hungry boy who had taken a loaf of bread.

PARTS clem mild, merciful (Latin clemens) + -ency the state or quality of

SIMILAR mercy, leniency, pardon, compassion OPPOSITE severity, harshness, cruelty immense ih-MENS adjective

MEANING extremely large or great

MEMORY HOOK IM-MENSE: too big to MEASURE. Kai tries to measure the whale with his little ruler and gives up after the tail. It is immense: too big to measure.

The blue whale is an immense animal, longer than two school buses.

PARTS im- not + mense measured

SIMILAR huge, enormous, vast, gigantic
OPPOSITE tiny, minute, minuscule

colossal kuh-LOS-ul adjective

MEANING enormous; huge enough to fill you with awe

MEMORY HOOK COLOSSUS: a statue so big it awes. The giant statue at the harbor is so tall that the sailing ships look like toys at its feet. It is colossal.

A colossal statue towered over the harbor, dwarfing the ships below.

SIMILAR huge, enormous, gigantic, vast OPPOSITE tiny, minuscule, diminutive monumental mon-yuh-MEN-tul adjective

MEANING very great in size or importance

MEMORY HOOK MONUMENT-al: as big as a MONUMENT. After a whole summer, Lila fits the last of five thousand puzzle pieces into place. Finishing it was a monumental task.

Finishing the five-thousand-piece puzzle was a monumental task.

PARTS mon remind (Latin monere) + -ment a means or result (a noun ending) + -al having to do with

SIMILAR huge, enormous, vast, historic OPPOSITE tiny, insignificant, trivial prodigious pruh-DIJ-us adjective

MEANING remarkably large or impressive

MEMORY HOOK PRODIGY-ous: a wonder of a size. Professor Edwin's books are stacked from the floor to the ceiling, so he needs a ladder to reach the top. His library is prodigious.

Professor Edwin owns a prodigious library, with books stacked to the ceiling.

PARTS prodigi a wonder (Latin prodigium) + -ous full of SIMILAR huge, enormous, vast, remarkable OPPOSITE tiny, ordinary, unremarkable gargantuan gar-GAN-choo-un adjective

MEANING enormous, especially in bulk or appetite

MEMORY HOOK GAR-GANT: a GARDEN GIANT. Omar grows a watermelon so big that the whole family has to push to roll it out of the garden. It is gargantuan.

Omar grew a gargantuan watermelon that took four people to lift.

SIMILAR huge, enormous, gigantic, vast
OPPOSITE tiny, minute, minuscule

minute my-NOOT adjective

MEANING extremely small; also, very detailed

MEMORY HOOK MY NEWT is my-NOOT. Zoe's pet newt is so tiny it fits on a fingertip; she needs a magnifying glass to see its toes. Her newt is minute.

A minute speck of dust jammed the old watch.

PARTS minut made small (Latin minutus)

SIMILAR tiny, microscopic, teeny, wee OPPOSITE huge, enormous, immense minuscule MIN-uh-skyool adjective

MEANING extremely small MEMORY HOOK MINUS-cule: so small it's almost a MINUS. The last cookie is shared with eight friends, and Ivy squints at her share: one crumb. It is minuscule.

Split among ten friends, the last cookie became ten minuscule crumbs.

PARTS minus less + -cule little (a Latin ending)

SIMILAR tiny, microscopic, teeny, wee OPPOSITE huge, enormous, gigantic diminutive dih-MIN-yuh-tiv adjective

MEANING very small, especially in height

MEMORY HOOK DIMINISH-utive: small and slight. Nana Lou, barely five feet tall, coaches a team of giants, and they all listen when she blows her whistle. She is diminutive but mighty.

The diminutive coach barely reached her players' shoulders, but they hung on her every word.

PARTS minu make smaller (Latin minuere) + -tive tending to

SIMILAR tiny, teeny, wee, petite OPPOSITE huge, gigantic, colossal infinitesimal in-fin-ih-TES-ih-mul adjective

MEANING too small to measure

MEMORY HOOK INFINITE-simal: INFINITELY small. Sami peers into the microscope at creatures so small that no ruler could ever measure them. They are infinitesimal.

Under the microscope, Sami found infinitesimal creatures swimming in a drop of pond water.

PARTS in- not + finit limit, end

SIMILAR tiny, microscopic, teeny, imperceptible

OPPOSITE huge, immense, vast negligible NEG-lih-juh-bul adjective

MEANING so small or unimportant it can be ignored

MEMORY HOOK NEGLECT-able: small enough to NEGLECT. Pip pours one bucket of water into the ocean and checks whether the sea has risen. The difference is negligible: small enough to ignore.

Pouring one cup of water into the ocean has a negligible effect on its level.

PARTS neglig neglect, disregard + -ible able to be

SIMILAR insignificant, trivial, slight, tiny

OPPOSITE significant, considerable, substantial avert uh-VURT verb

MEANING to turn away; to keep something bad from happening

MEMORY HOOK A-VERT: TURN AWAY from trouble. Captain Sven sees the rock ahead and turns the wheel hard; by turning away in time, he averts a crash.

Pip averted his eyes so he would not spoil the surprise in the gift bag.

PARTS a- away (a form of ab-) + vert turn

SIMILAR prevent, ward off, avoid, turn away

OPPOSITE cause, invite adverse ad-VURS adjective

MEANING harmful or unfavorable; working against you

MEMORY HOOK AD-VERSE: the wind TURNS against you. Ivy runs east with her kite, but the wind turns and blows hard the other way; adverse winds work against her.

The soccer final was put off a week because of adverse weather: hail, lightning and high winds.

PARTS ad- to, toward + vers turn

SIMILAR unfavorable, harmful, hostile, damaging

OPPOSITE favorable, beneficial, helpful versatile VUR-suh-tul adjective

MEANING able to do many different things, or to be used in many ways

MEMORY HOOK VERSE-atile: sings VERSES, plays it all. Tia sings the verses, strums the guitar, beats the drum and plays the fiddle, turning easily from one to the next: she is versatile.

A versatile player, Rosa can pitch, catch and cover first base.

PARTS vers turn

SIMILAR adaptable, all-around, flexible, many-sided OPPOSITE limited, narrow inadvertent in-ud-VUR-tunt adjective

MEANING done by accident, without meaning to MEMORY HOOK eyes IN the AD: a bump not meant. Sami's eyes are on the ad on the sign, not on the path, so he bumps a fruit cart. The bump is inadvertent: he did not mean it.

One inadvertent tap on the screen sent Grandpa's message to the whole family instead of just to Nana Lou.

PARTS in- not + ad- to, toward + vert turn

SIMILAR accidental, unintentional, unplanned, unwitting OPPOSITE deliberate, intentional, planned subvert sub-VURT verb

MEANING to secretly weaken or overturn something established

MEMORY HOOK SUB-VERT: overturn it from BELOW. Sneaky Rex crawls under the king's banquet table and tips it over from beneath. To subvert is to overturn from underneath.

The sneaky player tried to subvert the rules by changing the score sheet when no one was looking.

PARTS sub- under, from below + vert turn

SIMILAR undermine, overthrow, sabotage, weaken OPPOSITE support, uphold, strengthen conjecture kun-JEK-cher noun

MEANING a guess made without enough proof

MEMORY HOOK CON-JECT: THROW the clues TOGETHER. Ada throws three clues together, a tipped vase, a paw print and a feather, and makes a guess: the cat chased a bird! Her conjecture may be wrong.

Whether the old map leads to anything at all is pure conjecture.

PARTS con- together + ject throw

SIMILAR guess, speculation, hunch, surmise OPPOSITE fact, proof, certainty dejected dih-JEK-tid adjective

MEANING sad and discouraged; low in spirits

MEMORY HOOK DE-JECT-ed: THROWN DOWN. The wind throws Jonah's new kite down into the mud, and his spirits fall with it: he sits slumped and dejected.

After missing the bus to the big game, Kai sat on the curb looking dejected.

PARTS de- down + ject throw

SIMILAR downcast, discouraged, dispirited, glum

OPPOSITE elated, cheerful, upbeat interject in-ter-JEKT verb

MEANING to break in with a remark while someone else is talking

MEMORY HOOK INTER-JECT: THROW words IN BETWEEN. Mom and Dad are talking about dinner when Pip throws one word in between them: "Pizza!" He interjects.

Grandpa Gus likes to interject a joke in the middle of every story.

PARTS inter- between + ject throw

SIMILAR interrupt, cut in, break in, chime in intractable in-TRAK-tuh-bul adjective

MEANING hard to manage, control or solve

MEMORY HOOK IN-TRACT-ABLE: NOT PULL-ABLE. Jamal pulls and pulls on the rope, but the donkey won't move an inch. He can't pull it or manage it: the donkey is intractable.

The intractable goat refused to leave the porch, no matter how hard we pulled.

PARTS in- not + tract pull, draw + -able able to be

SIMILAR unmanageable, unruly, uncontrollable, difficult

OPPOSITE manageable, tractable, obedient protracted proh-TRAK-tid adjective

MEANING lasting much longer than expected or usual

MEMORY HOOK PRO-TRACT-ed: PULLED OUT long. Professor Edwin's "short" talk gets pulled out longer and longer, until his audience nods off. It is a protracted talk.

After a protracted search, Nana Lou found her glasses on top of her head.

PARTS pro- forward, out + tract pull, draw

SIMILAR prolonged, lengthy, drawn-out, extended

OPPOSITE brief, short, quick meticulous muh-TIK-yuh-lus adjective

MEANING very careful about every small detail

MEMORY HOOK me-TICK-ulous: every box gets a TICK. Maya puts a tick next to every item on her packing list, then checks each one twice: she is meticulous.

Lila keeps a meticulous record of every bird she sees, with the date, the time and the weather.

PARTS -ous full of, having

SIMILAR painstaking, thorough, precise, careful OPPOSITE careless, sloppy, slapdash scrupulous SKROO-pyuh-lus adjective

MEANING very careful to do what is right, or to get every detail exact

MEMORY HOOK SCREW-pulous: every SCREW just right. Jamal checks every single screw on Kai's bike, twice, before he says it is safe to ride: he is scrupulous.

The scrupulous cashier ran after a customer to give back a dime of extra change.

PARTS -ous full of, having

SIMILAR conscientious, principled, honest, painstaking OPPOSITE unscrupulous, dishonest, careless diligent DIL-uh-junt adjective

MEANING working hard and steadily, with care

MEMORY HOOK DIG-a-LOT GENT. Omar digs and plants all day, row after row, rain or shine. The hardworking gent is diligent.

A diligent student, Sami reviews his notes every night, not just the night before a test.

SIMILAR hardworking, industrious, conscientious, thorough OPPOSITE lazy, idle, negligent assiduous uh-SIJ-oo-us adjective

MEANING giving steady, careful attention to a task without letting up

MEMORY HOOK AS-SID-uous: SITS BESIDE the task. Lin sits beside her thousand-piece puzzle hour after hour, fitting piece after piece, and never leaves her seat. Her work is assiduous.

Thanks to assiduous practice, Rosa finally played the whole piece without a single mistake.

PARTS as- to, near (a form of ad-) + sid sit + -uous full of, having

SIMILAR diligent, tireless, persevering, industrious OPPOSITE lazy, negligent, halfhearted fastidious fa-STID-ee-us adjective

MEANING very fussy about details, neatness or cleanliness; hard to please MEMORY HOOK FAST-TIDY-ous: tidies FAST and often. Victor tidies fast and often: one crumb on the café table, and out comes the broom. He is fastidious.

The fastidious cat refused to eat from a bowl with a single crumb in it.

PARTS -ous full of, having

SIMILAR fussy, finicky, particular, meticulous OPPOSITE sloppy, slovenly, careless punctilious punk-TIL-ee-us adjective

MEANING very careful to follow the exact rules of proper behavior

MEMORY HOOK PUNCT: every POINT of manners. Professor Edwin bows just so, pours the tea just so and sets each spoon just so: every small point of manners is right. He is punctilious.

The punctilious host greeted every guest by name and seated each one by the place card.

PARTS punct point + -ous full of, having

SIMILAR proper, exact, formal, scrupulous OPPOSITE casual, careless, lax negligent NEG-lih-junt adjective

MEANING failing to take the care you should

MEMORY HOOK NEGLECT-GENT. The gent dozes on the park bench while his dog digs up the flower bed: he neglects the dog he should be watching. He is negligent.

The negligent landlord ignored the broken stair for months.

SIMILAR careless, neglectful, lax, remiss OPPOSITE careful, attentive, diligent remiss rih-MIS adjective

MEANING careless about a duty; failing to do what you should

MEMORY HOOK RE-MISS: MISSED his chore AGAIN. Taking out the trash is Dev's job, but he missed it Monday and missed it again Tuesday. He has been remiss.

I would be remiss if I didn't thank the volunteers who set up all the chairs.

PARTS re- back + miss send, let go

SIMILAR neglectful, negligent, lax, careless
OPPOSITE careful, attentive, diligent cursory KUR-suh-ree adjective

MEANING quick and not thorough; done in a hurry

MEMORY HOOK CURS = RUN: a RUNNING look. Pip runs past every painting in the museum, giving each one half a second: his look is cursory.

A cursory glance at the menu told Kai there was no pizza.

PARTS curs run

SIMILAR hasty, hurried, quick, superficial OPPOSITE thorough, careful, detailed perfunctory per-FUNK-tuh-ree adjective

MEANING done only as a routine, with little care or interest

MEMORY HOOK per-FUNK-tory: no FUN, just get THROUGH it. Rosa plays "Happy Birthday" with a blank face, no fun and no feeling, only to get through it. Her playing is perfunctory.

Jonah gave his aunt a perfunctory wave without looking up from his book.

PARTS per- through + funct perform

SIMILAR halfhearted, routine, mechanical, superficial OPPOSITE wholehearted, thorough, careful authentic aw-THEN-tik adjective

MEANING real and not a copy; true to where it came from MEMORY HOOK AUTH-entic: from the real AUTHOR. Nell's book is signed by the author himself, right at the bookstore table: a real signature from the real writer. It is authentic.

The museum made sure the old letter was authentic before putting it on display.

PARTS -ic having to do with, like

SIMILAR genuine, real, true, bona fide OPPOSITE fake, false, phony

bona fide BOH-nuh FIDE adjective

MEANING real; also, made or done in good faith, with no trickery

MEMORY HOOK BONE-a FIDO: a REAL bone. Fido sniffs the two bones: one is plastic, but the other is the real thing, a bona fide bone!

After years of lessons, Theo's big sister is now a bona fide pilot.

PARTS bona good + fide faith

SIMILAR genuine, real, true, authentic
OPPOSITE fake, false, phony

legitimate lih-JIT-uh-mit adjective

MEANING allowed by law or the rules; also, fair and reasonable

MEMORY HOOK LEG-IT: the LEG kick was LEGAL. The referee checks the rule book: Kai's left-leg kick broke no rule. "Legit!" The goal is legitimate.

Being sick is a legitimate reason to miss practice.

PARTS leg law

SIMILAR lawful, legal, valid, rightful OPPOSITE illegal, unlawful, illegitimate veritable VAIR-ih-tuh-bul adjective

MEANING truly deserving the name; used to stress that a description fits

MEMORY HOOK VERY TABLE: TRULY a FEAST. Nana Lou's dinner table is piled so high with food that feast is the only word for it: a veritable feast!

Granny Mae's garden is a veritable jungle of tomatoes, beans and squash.

PARTS ver true + -able able to be, worth being

SIMILAR genuine, real, true, absolute
OPPOSITE fake, false, phony

spurious SPYOOR-ee-us adjective

MEANING false, though made to look true or real

MEMORY HOOK SPY-YOUR-ious: a SPY in a fake mustache. The spy's mustache looks real from far away, but up close it is glued on and false. His disguise is spurious.

The ad made spurious claims that the cream would make anyone look twenty years younger.

PARTS -ous full of, having

SIMILAR fake, false, phony, sham
OPPOSITE genuine, real, true bogus BOH-gus adjective

MEANING fake; not genuine

MEMORY HOOK BOGUS BUGS: plastic bugs!. Kai sets plastic bugs on the picnic blanket to fool his sister. Lila laughs: the bugs are bogus, not real at all.

The bogus ticket looked real until the usher held it up to the light.

SIMILAR fake, false, phony, sham
OPPOSITE genuine, real, true

counterfeit KOWN-ter-fit adjective

MEANING made to look real in order to fool people

MEMORY HOOK COUNTER-FEIT: FAKE money on the COUNTER. Rex slaps shiny coins on the shop counter, but the clerk looks closely: they are painted wood! The coins are counterfeit.

The shopkeeper held the bill up to the light and saw that it was counterfeit.

PARTS counter- against, opposite + feit made

SIMILAR fake, false, phony, sham

OPPOSITE genuine, real, true

apocryphal uh-POK-ruh-ful adjective

MEANING widely told but probably not true

MEMORY HOOK a POCKET-FULL of tall tales. Grandpa Gus has a pocket full of tall tales: the fish as big as a boat, the bear he out-ran. Fun stories, but probably not true: they are apocryphal.

The apocryphal story says the town's founder once out-ran a bear.

PARTS apo- away + cryph hidden (as in crypt)

SIMILAR doubtful, unverified, legendary, made-up

OPPOSITE verified, documented, confirmed fictitious fik-TISH-us adjective

MEANING made up; not real

MEMORY HOOK FICTION-ous: straight out of FICTION. A friendly dragon in Pip's storybook flies over the castle. Fun to read about, but the dragon is fictitious: made up.

The detective in the mystery lives at a fictitious address that no mail carrier could ever find.

PARTS fict shaped, made up + -ous full of, having

SIMILAR imaginary, invented, made-up, false

OPPOSITE real, factual, true mendacious men-DAY-shus adjective

MEANING lying; not telling the truth

MEMORY HOOK MEND-acious: he MENDS his story with lies. Caught beside the empty pie plate, Jonah mends his story again and again: "A dog ate it! No, a bird!" Every patch is a lie; he is mendacious.

The mendacious knight told the queen he had slain the dragon, though he had never left the castle.

PARTS mendac lying + -ious full of, having

SIMILAR lying, dishonest, untruthful, deceitful

OPPOSITE honest, truthful, candid affect uh-FEKT verb

MEANING to have an influence on; to change

MEMORY HOOK A is for ACTION: you AFFECT. Pip taps the first block, and his one small action changes the whole row: his tap affects every block down the line.

Lack of sleep can affect how well you do on a test.

PARTS af- to (a form of ad-) + fect do, make

SIMILAR influence, change, alter, sway effect ih-FEKT noun

MEANING a result; a change that something causes

MEMORY HOOK E is for END: the EFFECT comes last. Zoe waters her bean plant every day for a month. The end result, a plant taller than she is, is the effect of all that care.

The new streetlights had a clear effect: far fewer people tripped on the dark corner.*

PARTS ef- out (a form of ex-) + fect do, make

SIMILAR result, outcome, consequence, impact

OPPOSITE cause

imply im-PLY verb

MEANING to suggest something without saying it directly

MEMORY HOOK IM-PLY: the hint goes IN the message. The café is closing. Jamal yawns and points at the clock; without a word, he implies that it is time for the last customers to go.

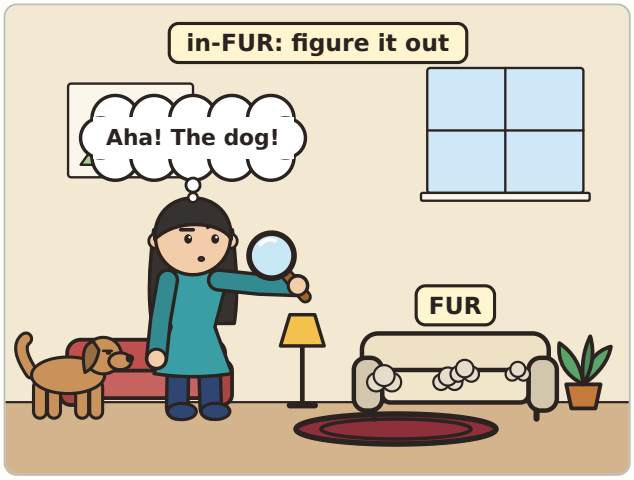

By yawning loudly through the whole movie, Kai implied that it was boring.

PARTS im- in (a form of in-) + ply fold

SIMILAR suggest, hint, insinuate, signal

OPPOSITE state, declare infer in-FUR verb

MEANING to figure out from clues or evidence

MEMORY HOOK in-FUR: she INFERS from the FUR. Lin spots brown fur all over the white sofa and figures it out: the dog has been napping there again. From the fur, she infers the truth.

From the muddy paw prints on the rug, Lin inferred that the dog had come inside.

PARTS in- in + fer carry, bring

SIMILAR deduce, conclude, gather, reason elicit ih-LIS-it verb

MEANING to draw out a response, an answer or a feeling

MEMORY HOOK E-LICIT: draws OUT an "Ooh!". Tia pulls a rabbit out of her hat, and the trick draws a gasp out of the crowd: it elicits a great big "Ooh!"

The clown's silly walk elicited giggles from every child in the room.

PARTS e- out (a form of ex-) + lic lure, draw

SIMILAR draw out, evoke, bring out, prompt OPPOSITE suppress, stifle illicit il-LIS-it adjective

MEANING not allowed by law or by the rules

MEMORY HOOK ILL-icit: ILLegal, against the rules. The sign says NO CATS ON THE TABLE, but Pepper sneaks up for the fish anyway. Her snack is illicit!

The camp counselors found an illicit stash of candy hidden under a bunk.

PARTS il- not (a form of in-) + licit allowed

SIMILAR illegal, unlawful, forbidden, banned OPPOSITE legal, lawful, legitimate ingenious in-JEEN-yus adjective

MEANING very clever and inventive

MEMORY HOOK in-GENIUS: a little GENIUS. Dev's robot sorts the laundry by color and folds every sock: an idea worthy of a genius. It is ingenious.

Sami rigged an ingenious pulley that lowers snacks down to his bottom bunk.

PARTS in- in + gen birth, produce + -ious full of, having

SIMILAR clever, inventive, creative, brilliant OPPOSITE unimaginative, clumsy, dull ingenuous in-JEN-yoo-us adjective

MEANING innocent, trusting and open; with nothing to hide

MEMORY HOOK in-GENU-ous: GENUine, no tricks. When the teacher asks who forgot their homework, little Theo's hand shoots up at once: he hides nothing. He is ingenuous.

With ingenuous delight, Theo told the whole family exactly what he had bought Mom for her birthday.

PARTS in- in + gen birth + -uous full of, having

SIMILAR innocent, naive, trusting, candid OPPOSITE sly, crafty, disingenuous eminent EM-uh-nunt adjective

MEANING famous and respected in a field

MEMORY HOOK EMINENT rhymes with PROMINENT. Professor Edwin stands out above everyone in his field, and the crowd rises to cheer him: he is eminent.

An eminent scientist visited our school to talk about volcanoes.

PARTS e- out (a form of ex-) + min jut, stand out

SIMILAR distinguished, renowned, prominent, esteemed OPPOSITE unknown, obscure imminent IM-uh-nunt adjective

MEANING about to happen, often something bad

MEMORY HOOK IM-MIN-ent: IN A MINute!. A huge wave is rolling toward Lila's sandcastle; it will hit in a minute. The crash is imminent!

With thunder rumbling closer, the lifeguard warned that a storm was imminent.

PARTS im- over (a form of in-) + min jut, hang over

SIMILAR impending, approaching, near, looming OPPOSITE distant, remote, far-off

dread DRED noun

MEANING great fear of something that is coming

MEMORY HOOK DREAD: the thing under the BED. As bedtime nears, Pip is full of dread: he is sure something is hiding under his bed. (It is only the cat.)

Kai felt a growing dread as the dentist's door creaked open.

SIMILAR fear, apprehension, terror, foreboding OPPOSITE eagerness, confidence, calm qualm KWAHM noun

MEANING a sudden uneasy feeling, especially a doubt about whether something is right MEMORY HOOK QU + CALM: calm, with a QUestion. Zoe reaches calmly for the cookie jar before dinner, then pauses: "Should I?" That little twinge of doubt is a qualm.

Rosa had no qualms about eating the last cookie; she had baked them all herself.

SIMILAR doubt, misgiving, scruple, reservation OPPOSITE certainty, confidence misgiving mis-GIV-ing noun

MEANING a feeling of doubt or worry about whether something will turn out well

MEMORY HOOK MIS-GIVING: GIVING, with doubts. Marcus holds out the car keys to Jonah for his first drive alone, but his hand hesitates: he has a misgiving about giving them.

Despite her misgivings, Ada let her son ride the giant roller coaster.

PARTS mis- badly, wrongly

SIMILAR doubt, qualm, reservation, apprehension OPPOSITE confidence, certainty, trust unnerve un-NURV verb

MEANING to make someone lose courage or calm

MEMORY HOOK UN-NERVE: his NERVE is gone. Dev boasted he would jump from the high rock into the river, but standing at the edge, he loses his nerve. The height unnerves him.

The creaking floorboards unnerved the new babysitter.

PARTS un- undo, take away + nerve courage

SIMILAR rattle, unsettle, frighten, fluster OPPOSITE reassure, steady, calm daunt DAWNT verb

MEANING to make someone feel discouraged or afraid to try

MEMORY HOOK DAUNT = DON'T: the mountain says DON'T. The giant mountain seems to say "Don't!" to tiny Felix at its foot. Its size daunts him, and he almost turns back.

The steep trail did not daunt Granny Mae; she reached the top before anyone else.

SIMILAR discourage, dishearten, frighten, intimidate OPPOSITE encourage, embolden, hearten intimidate in-TIM-ih-dayt verb

MEANING to frighten someone, often to make them do what you want MEMORY HOOK in-TIMID-ate: makes you TIMID. The barn cat puffs up and hisses, and the little mouse turns timid and backs away from the cheese. The cat intimidates the mouse.

The big dog's deep bark intimidated the mail carrier.

PARTS in- in, into + timid fearful + -ate to make

SIMILAR frighten, scare, bully, daunt OPPOSITE reassure, encourage, comfort foreboding for-BOH-ding noun

MEANING a feeling that something bad is going to happen

MEMORY HOOK FORE-BOAT-ing: a bad feeling before the BOAT trip. Before the boat trip, Sven sees black clouds rolling in and feels sure that trouble is coming. That feeling is a foreboding.

Watching the black clouds gather, Sven had a foreboding that the fishing trip would end early.

PARTS fore- before, ahead + bode foretell

SIMILAR apprehension, dread, premonition, fear

OPPOSITE optimism, hope, confidence

phobia FOH-bee-uh noun

MEANING a strong, lasting fear of one thing, often far beyond any real danger

MEMORY HOOK FOE-BEE-a: every BEE is her FOE. To Greta, every bee is a foe: she has a phobia of bees and runs from even the smallest one.

Felix has a phobia of elevators, so he always takes the stairs.

PARTS phob fear

SIMILAR fear, terror, horror, aversion

OPPOSITE fondness, liking consternation kon-ster-NAY-shun noun

MEANING sudden alarm and confusion; shocked dismay

MEMORY HOOK the whole NATION STARES in alarm. At the town fair, the giant cake begins to topple, and the whole crowd stares and gasps in alarm: consternation!

To the baker's consternation, the wedding cake slid right off the cart.

PARTS con- thoroughly, together + -ation the act or state of

SIMILAR dismay, alarm, shock, panic

OPPOSITE calm, composure, delight perturb per-TURB verb

MEANING to make someone worried or upset

MEMORY HOOK PERTURB rhymes with DISTURB. Sami's drumming next door keeps disturbing Grandpa's crossword until he can't think straight. The noise perturbs him.

It perturbed Grandpa Gus that the newspaper had not come by eight.

PARTS per- thoroughly + turb disturb, stir up

SIMILAR disturb, upset, unsettle, worry

OPPOSITE calm, soothe, reassure erudite AIR-yuh-dite adjective

MEANING having or showing great knowledge from reading and study MEMORY HOOK “READ IT!”: he has read them all. Ask Professor Edwin about any book in the library and he smiles: “Read it!” He has read them all; he is erudite.

The erudite librarian could answer questions about almost any book on the shelves.

PARTS e- out (a form of ex-) + rud rough, untaught

SIMILAR learned, scholarly, knowledgeable, well-read

OPPOSITE ignorant, uneducated, unlettered pedantic puh-DAN-tik adjective

MEANING too concerned with small details and rules, often to show off learning MEMORY HOOK pe-DAN-tic: DAN and his rules. Dan stops the soccer game to read out the rule about exactly how round the ball must be. Dan is pedantic.

My pedantic cousin corrected my grammar in the middle of my birthday toast.

PARTS -ic having to do with, like

SIMILAR nitpicking, fussy, hair-splitting, overprecise

OPPOSITE easygoing, flexible, casual didactic dye-DAK-tik adjective

MEANING meant to teach a lesson, often in a preachy way

MEMORY HOOK DID-ACT-ic: every ACT stops for a LESSON. The class play did act out a story, but every scene stopped for a lecture: “And the lesson is…” The play is didactic.

The picture book was so didactic that every page ended with a lesson about brushing your teeth.

PARTS didact teach + -ic having to do with SIMILAR instructive, preachy, moralizing, educational

OPPOSITE entertaining, subtle connoisseur kon-uh-SUR noun

MEANING an expert judge of things that need fine taste, such as food, art or music

MEMORY HOOK CONE-a-SIR: the CONE expert, sir. Victor takes one lick of each ice cream cone and names the flavor and the farm it came from. He is a connoisseur.

A cheese connoisseur can tell where a cheese was made from a single bite.

SIMILAR expert, judge, authority, aficionado

OPPOSITE amateur, dilettante, beginner dilettante DIL-uh-tahnt noun

MEANING a person who dabbles in a subject or an art without serious study MEMORY HOOK DILLY-DALLY-tante: a little of everything. Pip dillydallies: guitar on Monday, painting on Tuesday, chess on Wednesday. He dabbles in each and masters none: he is a dilettante.

He calls himself a painter, but he is a dilettante who finishes about one picture a year.

SIMILAR dabbler, hobbyist, trifler OPPOSITE expert, professional, connoisseur novice NOV-is noun

MEANING a beginner; someone new to a skill or activity

MEMORY HOOK NOV-ICE: NEW on the ICE. Jamal is new on the ice: wobbly knees, waving arms, one big bump. He is a novice skater.

As a novice skater, Lin spent more time on the ice than on her feet.

PARTS nov new

SIMILAR beginner, newcomer, learner, rookie OPPOSITE expert, veteran, master

prodigy PROD-ih-jee noun

MEANING a young person with an amazing talent

MEMORY HOOK PRO-digy: a PRO, and only three. Little Theo is only three, yet he plays the violin like a pro. The crowd can't believe it: he is a prodigy!

At six, the piano prodigy played a concert in a packed hall.

SIMILAR genius, wonder child, wunderkind precocious prih-KOH-shus adjective

MEANING showing skills or behavior unusually early for one's age

MEMORY HOOK PRE-COOK-ious: COOKS before age five. Ivy is only four, yet she cooks a whole breakfast: pancakes, eggs and toast. She is precocious: ripe early.

The precocious toddler could read the cereal box before she turned three.

PARTS pre- before + coc cook, ripen + -ious full of, having

SIMILAR advanced, gifted, forward, mature for one's age OPPOSITE immature, late-blooming polymath POL-ee-math noun

MEANING a person who knows a great deal about many different subjects

MEMORY HOOK POLY-MATH: MATH and MANY more. Ada knows math, music, maps, stars and many more subjects besides: she is a polymath.

A true polymath, Professor Edwin has written books on birds, bridges and old poems.

PARTS poly- many + math learning

SIMILAR Renaissance person, universal genius

OPPOSITE specialist

virtuoso vur-choo-OH-soh noun

MEANING a person with outstanding skill, especially in playing music

MEMORY HOOK vir-CHOO-OH-SO: fast as a CHOO-CHOO. Lin's fingers race over the piano keys like a speeding train: choo-choo, oh so fast! She is a virtuoso.

The violin virtuoso played so fast that her bow seemed to blur.

SIMILAR master, maestro, expert, ace

OPPOSITE novice, beginner, amateur culminate KUL-muh-nayt verb

MEANING to reach the highest point or the final, biggest stage

MEMORY HOOK CLIMB-inate: it CLIMBS to the big finish. The fireworks show climbs higher and higher and ends with one giant golden burst: the show culminates in a grand finale.

A week of rehearsals culminated in a standing ovation on opening night.

PARTS culmin top, peak + -ate to make, to act

SIMILAR climax, peak, come to a head, build up to

OPPOSITE begin, start terminate TUR-muh-nayt verb

MEANING to bring to an end, or to come to an end

MEMORY HOOK TERMIN-al: the END of the line. The train pulls into the terminal, the very end of the line. "Everybody off!" The trip terminates here.

The bus line terminates at the edge of town, so we walked the last mile.

PARTS termin end, boundary + -ate to make, to act

SIMILAR end, stop, conclude, cancel

OPPOSITE begin, initiate, continue cessation seh-SAY-shun noun

MEANING a stopping; the end of something

MEMORY HOOK CEASE-ation: the rain CEASES. The rain ceases, a rainbow appears, and Nell shakes out her umbrella. The cessation of the storm brings everyone outside.

The cessation of the rain brought everyone out onto their porches.

PARTS cess stop (from Latin cedere, to go, to yield) + -ation the act of

SIMILAR stop, halt, end, pause

OPPOSITE continuation, beginning, start demise dih-MIZE noun

MEANING the end of something; also, a death

MEMORY HOOK DE-MIZE: his SIZE goes DOWN to nothing. In the spring sun, the snowman's size shrinks down, down, down, until only a puddle, a hat and a carrot are left. That is the snowman's demise.

The arrival of the big new mall led to the demise of the little corner bookshop.

PARTS mis send, let go

SIMILAR end, death, passing, finish

OPPOSITE birth, beginning, rise obsolete ob-suh-LEET adjective

MEANING no longer used or useful; out of date

MEMORY HOOK OB-SO-LETE: SO OLD, it's out. At the museum, Dev stares at a giant old radio the size of a fridge. Nobody uses one like that anymore: it is obsolete.

Grandpa still keeps his obsolete typewriter on a shelf in the den.

SIMILAR outdated, outmoded, antiquated, disused

OPPOSITE current, modern, up-to-date defunct dih-FUNKT adjective

MEANING no longer existing, working or in use

MEMORY HOOK DE-FUNCT: no longer FUNCTIONS. The old robot in the alley no longer functions: no lights, no beeps, just a puff of dust. It is defunct.

The defunct factory has been turned into apartments and a bakery.

PARTS de- off, away + funct perform

SIMILAR extinct, dead, disused, inoperative

OPPOSITE working, active, operating zenith ZEE-nith noun

MEANING the highest point; the time of greatest success or power

MEMORY HOOK ZEE-NITH: SEE everything beNEATH. From the very top of the peak, with the sun straight overhead, Maya can see everything beneath her. She has reached the zenith.

At its zenith, the little bakery sold a thousand loaves a day.

SIMILAR peak, summit, top
OPPOSITE bottom, low point, rock bottom

apex AY-peks noun

MEANING the top or highest point, often a pointed tip

MEMORY HOOK APE-X: the APE on the very tip. A cheeky ape scrambles up to the pointed tip of the pyramid and waves: he has reached the apex.

The lion is called an apex predator because no other animal hunts it.

SIMILAR peak, summit, top
OPPOSITE bottom, low point, rock bottom

pinnacle PIN-uh-kul noun

MEANING the highest point of success or achievement

MEMORY HOOK a PIN and a CUP: the very top. Rosa wins the gold pin and the giant cup at the national meet, the highest honor of all: the pinnacle of her career.

Winning the state title was the pinnacle of Coach Omar's career.

SIMILAR peak, summit, top
OPPOSITE bottom, low point, rock bottom

nadir NAY-der noun

MEANING the lowest point

MEMORY HOOK NADA left: rock bottom. Kai has spent every last coin. He shakes his piggy bank and gets nada, nothing at all: his savings have hit their nadir.

The team's nadir came in October, when it lost five games in a row.

SIMILAR bottom, low point, rock bottom OPPOSITE peak, summit, top soothe SOOTH verb

MEANING to calm or comfort, often gently; to ease pain

MEMORY HOOK SOOTHE rhymes with SMOOTH. Priya sings a smooth, slow lullaby, and little Theo's crying fades into sleepy sighs. Her song soothes him.

Priya hummed an old lullaby to soothe the fussy baby.

SIMILAR calm, comfort, ease, relieve OPPOSITE agitate, upset, irritate console kun-SOHL verb

MEANING to comfort someone who is sad or disappointed

MEMORY HOOK a CONE for a SAD SOUL. Pip comes in last in the race, so Nana Lou hands him an ice cream cone and a hug: "You ran your best." She consoles him.

Rosa consoled her little brother after his kite blew away.

PARTS con- with + sol comfort

SIMILAR comfort, cheer, solace, reassure OPPOSITE upset, distress, trouble

appease uh-PEEZ verb

MEANING to calm someone by giving them what they demand

MEMORY HOOK a-PEAS: PEAS for PEACE. The dragon roars for its dinner, so Sven slides it a giant bowl of peas. Full and happy, it settles down: Sven appeases the dragon.

To stop the twins' chant of "Snacks! Snacks!", Mom appeased them with a plate of crackers.

PARTS ap- to (a form of ad-) + pease peace (from Latin pax)

SIMILAR placate, pacify, satisfy, buy off OPPOSITE provoke, anger, enrage

mollify MOL-uh-fye verb

MEANING to soften someone's anger

MEMORY HOOK MOLLY-fy: Molly makes him MELLOW. Grandpa Gus is grumbling until little Molly brings him a warm cookie and a hug. His anger softens: Molly mollifies him.

A free dessert mollified the diner whose soup had come out cold.

PARTS moll soft + -ify to make

SIMILAR placate, pacify, soften, sweeten OPPOSITE anger, enrage, provoke assuage uh-SWAYJ verb

MEANING to make a bad feeling, such as hunger, pain or guilt, less strong

MEMORY HOOK A SAUSAGE to ASSUAGE his hunger. After a long day of hiking, Jamal's stomach growls. One hot sausage from the campfire assuages his hunger.

A tall glass of lemonade assuaged our thirst after the long hike.

PARTS as- to (a form of ad-) + suage sweeten (from Latin suavis, sweet)

SIMILAR ease, relieve, lessen, alleviate OPPOSITE worsen, intensify, aggravate allay uh-LAY verb

MEANING to make fear, worry or doubt less strong

MEMORY HOOK AL-LAY: LAY your fears DOWN. Before his checkup, Sami is scared, so Nurse Tia shows him each tool and lets him listen to his own heartbeat. Her kindness allays his fears.

The pilot's calm voice allayed the nervous passengers' fears.

SIMILAR ease, calm, relieve, lessen OPPOSITE arouse, stir up, increase quell KWEL verb

MEANING to put an end to something, such as a riot or a rumor, often by force MEMORY HOOK QUELL the YELL. The lunchroom roars with yelling until Coach Omar blows one sharp whistle, and the noise stops at once. He quells the yell.

The teacher quelled the giggling with a single raised eyebrow.

SIMILAR suppress, crush, put down, stamp out OPPOSITE incite, provoke, stir up conciliate kun-SIL-ee-ayt verb

MEANING to win over someone who is angry, often by friendly acts

MEMORY HOOK CON-SILLY-ate: win him over with something SILLY. Victor is angry about the ball in his garden, so Greta brings him a pie and sings a silly sorry song. His frown melts: she conciliates him.

The hotel conciliated the upset guests with a free night's stay.

PARTS con- together + -ate to make, to act

SIMILAR placate, win over, pacify, disarm OPPOSITE antagonize, alienate, anger reconcile REK-un-sile verb

MEANING to become friends again after a quarrel; also, to make two things agree

MEMORY HOOK from WRECK to SMILE: REC-on-SMILE. Lila and Maya had a wreck of a fight, but now they hug and smile, friends again: they reconcile.

After a week of silence, the two friends finally reconciled over a shared pizza.

PARTS re- again + concile bring together, win over

SIMILAR make up, reunite, make peace, settle

OPPOSITE estrange, divide, alienate defuse dee-FYOOZ verb

MEANING to calm a tense or dangerous situation

MEMORY HOOK DE-FUSE: put out the FUSE before the BOOM. Kai and Dev are about to blow up at each other. Ada pours water on the sizzling fuse of their fight: she defuses it.

Pip defused the argument at the dinner table by making everyone laugh.

PARTS de- remove + fuse the wick that sets something off

SIMILAR calm, ease, settle, smooth over

OPPOSITE inflame, escalate, provoke hostile HOS-tul adjective

MEANING unfriendly; showing that you want to fight or oppose

MEMORY HOOK HOST-ILE: a HOST who wants a fight. Felix answers his door with a scowl and crossed arms: “No visitors!” He is the most hostile host on the street.

The cat gave the new puppy a hostile stare and a low hiss.

PARTS host enemy, stranger

SIMILAR unfriendly, antagonistic, aggressive, combative

OPPOSITE friendly, welcoming, amicable belligerent buh-LIJ-er-unt adjective

MEANING acting angry and ready to fight

MEMORY HOOK BELL-igerent: the goat with the BELL charges. The goat with the bell around his neck lowers his horns and charges at anyone who comes near the barn. He is belligerent.

The belligerent customer shouted at the cashier over a ten-cent coupon.

PARTS bell war + ger wage, carry on

SIMILAR aggressive, hostile, combative, quarrelsome

OPPOSITE peaceful, friendly, conciliatory bellicose BEL-ih-kohs adjective

MEANING eager to fight or go to war; warlike by nature

MEMORY HOOK BELL-i-COSE: loves war (BELLum). Every single morning, the rooster puffs up his chest and dares every animal in the yard to fight him. Fighting is his nature: he is bellicose.

The bellicose rooster picked a fight with every bird in the yard.

PARTS bell war + -ose full of SIMILAR warlike, aggressive, combative, belligerent OPPOSITE peaceful, peace-loving, pacifist pugnacious pug-NAY-shus adjective

MEANING quick to argue or fight

MEMORY HOOK PUG-NACIOUS: a PUG ready to fight. The tiny pug plants his feet and growls at an elephant a hundred times his size: "Come on!" He is pugnacious.

The pugnacious little terrier barked at dogs five times his size.

PARTS pugn fight (from Latin pugnus, fist) + -acious full of, having

SIMILAR combative, quarrelsome, belligerent, argumentative OPPOSITE peaceable, agreeable, easygoing truculent TRUK-yuh-lunt adjective

MEANING quick to argue or fight; fierce and defiant

MEMORY HOOK TRUCK-ulent: "MY TRUCK! Don't touch!". Theo sits in his toy truck with his arms crossed and a fierce scowl: "Mine! Go away!" He is truculent.

The truculent toddler crossed his arms and refused to put on his shoes.

SIMILAR defiant, combative, surly, belligerent OPPOSITE meek, cooperative, gentle adversary AD-ver-sair-ee noun

MEANING an opponent; someone you compete or fight against

MEMORY HOOK AD-VERSUS-ary: ME VERSUS YOU. In the tug-of-war, it is Jonah versus Rosa, each pulling the other way: they are adversaries.

In the chess final, Maya faced her toughest adversary: her own grandfather.*

PARTS ad- toward + vers turn

SIMILAR opponent, rival, foe, enemy OPPOSITE ally, friend, teammate militant MIL-ih-tunt adjective

MEANING fighting hard and aggressively for a cause

MEMORY HOOK MILIT-ANT: an ANT army for a cause. The ants march in a fierce line with tiny signs: SAVE OUR HILL! They will fight hard for their anthill: they are militant.

The militant members of the garden club demanded that every lawn in town become a vegetable patch.

PARTS milit soldier

SIMILAR aggressive, combative, radical, zealous OPPOSITE moderate, peaceful, passive truce TROOS noun

MEANING an agreement to stop fighting for a while

MEMORY HOOK TRUCE: a TRUE pause, for now. In the middle of their snowball fight, Kai waves a white flag: “Truce! Cocoa break!” For now, the fight is paused: it is a truce.

The two brothers called a truce in their pillow fight so they could eat breakfast.

SIMILAR ceasefire, pause, lull OPPOSITE war, fighting, hostilities armistice AR-mih-stis noun

MEANING an agreement between two sides at war to stop fighting

MEMORY HOOK ARMS STILL: ARMI-STICE. The two kings shake hands over a signed scroll, and both armies put down their arms and stand still. The armistice ends the war.

The armistice was signed at dawn, and by noon the fighting had stopped all along the border.

PARTS armi arms, weapons + stice a standing still

SIMILAR ceasefire, truce, peace agreement OPPOSITE war, hostilities diplomacy dih-PLOH-muh-see noun

MEANING the work of managing relations between nations; also, skill in handling people tactfully

MEMORY HOOK DIPLOMA-cy: talk it out, then sign the paper. Pip and Sami are fighting over the tree swing, so Lila sits them down, listens to each and gets them to sign a turn-taking deal. That is diplomacy.

With a little diplomacy, Lila got both brothers to share the last slice of cake.

SIMILAR tact, negotiation, statecraft, discretion OPPOSITE tactlessness, bluntness ubiquitous yoo-BIK-wih-tus adjective

MEANING found everywhere; seeming to be everywhere at once

MEMORY HOOK YOU BIKE WITH US: bikes everywhere. In this town, everyone calls out "You bike with us!" Bikes are on every path, every rack and every porch: they are ubiquitous.

Phones are so ubiquitous now that it is hard to find a bus rider without one.

PARTS ubiqu everywhere + -ous full of, having

SIMILAR omnipresent, everywhere, widespread, pervasive

OPPOSITE rare, scarce, uncommon pervasive per-VAY-siv adjective

MEANING spreading through every part of something

MEMORY HOOK per-VASE-ive: VASES all THROUGH the house. Granny Mae loves flowers so much that there are vases on every table, shelf and windowsill in her house. Flowers are pervasive there.

The pervasive smell of popcorn drifted through every corner of the theater.

PARTS per- through + vas go + -ive tending to

SIMILAR widespread, all-over, rife, inescapable

OPPOSITE limited, contained, rare prevalent PREV-uh-lunt adjective

MEANING widespread; common in a place or at a time

MEMORY HOOK PREV-ALL-ent: nearly ALL have one. When it rains in our town, nearly all of us carry red umbrellas. Red umbrellas are prevalent here.

Colds are most prevalent in the winter months.

PARTS pre- before, above + val be strong

SIMILAR widespread, common, rife, prevailing

OPPOSITE rare, uncommon, scarce rampant RAM-punt adjective

MEANING spreading or growing out of control

MEMORY HOOK RAM-PANT: the RAMS run wild. One ram jumps the fence, then ten more follow. Soon rams are running wild all over the farm: they are rampant!

Weeds grew rampant in the empty lot behind the school.

SIMILAR unchecked, uncontrolled, widespread, rife

OPPOSITE controlled, contained, checked predominant prih-DOM-ih-nunt adjective

MEANING most common, strongest or most important

MEMORY HOOK PRE-DOMIN-ant: yellow DOMINATES. In Zoe's garden, nearly every flower is yellow; only one is red. Yellow is the predominant color.

Blue is the predominant color in Kai's room: blue walls, a blue rug and a blue bedspread.

PARTS pre- before, above + domin rule, master

SIMILAR main, chief, dominant, prevailing

OPPOSITE minor, secondary, lesser universal yoo-nih-VUR-sul adjective

MEANING true of, used by or including everyone or everything

MEMORY HOOK UNIVERSE-al: true across the whole UNIVERSE. Pip lands on a faraway planet, and the robot there waves hello, just like at home. Waving hello is universal!

A smile is a universal sign of friendliness.

PARTS uni- one + vers turn

SIMILAR general, worldwide, all-embracing, everywhere

OPPOSITE particular, limited, local endemic en-DEM-ik adjective

MEANING regularly found in a particular place or among a particular group

MEMORY HOOK EN = IN: found IN one place only. The purple parrot lives on this one little island and nowhere else in the world. It is endemic to the island.

The kiwi is endemic to New Zealand; in the wild, it lives nowhere else on Earth.

PARTS en- in + dem people, district

SIMILAR native, local, characteristic, prevalent

OPPOSITE foreign, introduced, imported permeate PUR-mee-ayt verb

MEANING to spread through every part of something

MEMORY HOOK PER (through) + MEATE: spreads all the way THROUGH. Nana Lou bakes bread, and the warm smell drifts through the window, down the street and into every house. It permeates the whole village.

The smell of fresh bread permeated the whole house.

PARTS per- through + mea pass, go + -ate to make, to act

SIMILAR pervade, fill, soak through, spread saturate SACH-uh-rayt verb

MEANING to soak completely; to fill so full that no more can be added

MEMORY HOOK SAT-u-RATE: he SAT in it, now SOAKED. Sami sat right down in the biggest puddle on the playground, and his pants soaked up every drop they could hold. They are saturated!

The garden hose saturated the flower bed until water pooled on top.

PARTS satur full + -ate to make

SIMILAR soak, drench, flood, fill

OPPOSITE dry, drain

diffuse dih-FYOOZ verb

MEANING to spread out over a wide area

MEMORY HOOK DIF-FUSE: poured out, spread APART. Pop! Lila's pillow bursts, and the feathers spread out over the whole room, every which way. They diffuse.

A few drops of food coloring diffused slowly through the glass of water.

PARTS dif- apart (a form of dis-) + fus pour

SIMILAR spread, scatter, disperse, circulate OPPOSITE concentrate, gather, focus